The Gainesville Street Railroad.

Ed. Nugget:

The Gainesville street railroad recently commenced to run on schedule time, on about four miles of the street car track already finished up from the Southern depot, up the street to the public square, and from the Hudson House, along the north side of the public square by Dr. Bailey's residence, and Brenau college to New Holland.

Green street is graded and ready for the track up to the stand pipe, three-fourths of a mile, and the road is now being graded from the depot to the Gainesville cotton factory, about three-fourths of a mile, and there is one other road to grade, from the Hudson House, along Washington street to the crossing of the Price grade, and thence to the cemetery, on the south-west side of Gainesville.

When these are finished, which will probably be in the course of a month, work will begin on the regular line between Gainesville and Dahlonega, and be finished to the Chestate power plant at New Bridge, and the cars running to that point, it may be expected by commencement; and the work will be continued up the Chestate river, crossing the same at the Briar Patch, and then up the river and on to Dahlonega. It is hoped that it will reach this point during the year.

A branch is to be built, from London's depot, which point is four miles above New Bridge, to the pyrite copper mine, which mine is seven miles due east from Dahlonega.

We have stated heretofore that, in our opinion, in ten years, there will scarcely be a county in the state but what will have railroad facilities.

You may ask, what resource has Lumpkin county, which, if developed would aid in the support of a railroad, if one were built to this place. We will name a few of them. First the copper or pyrite mine, east of Dahlonega, which is now being worked with great success, and the indications are that the ore is in large quantities, and the supply is inexhaustible and very valuable, but without railroad facilities would be valueless. If the railroad is built here, it will cross this pyrite lead.

There was also a copper vein discovered two miles west of Dahlonega forty years ago. The party was working the vein for gold, but found so much copper ore mixed with the gold that he could not separate the gold and copper ores, so he abandoned the work on that vein.

The next I will mention are the immense deposits of iron ore. In 1850, when I came to Dahlonega, there was some excitement over what was called the loadstone vein, located at Cane creek falls, two and a half miles west of Dahlonega. I visited this with some other parties, and when the ore was scraped off and the magnet applied to it, this sand gathered upon it like live insects; so it was decided that it was a magnetic iron vein. This vein has been traced, ten or twelve miles, reaching from the Etowah river in a northeasterly direction to the Chestate river, the nearest point to Dahlonega is about two miles. This lead has been tested and the veins opened at several points, and the ore is quite abundant and of the finest quality. Two or three hundred feet on the north-west side is a parallel lead of red hematite iron ore of the best quality. The company has gone down on this vein for fifty feet or more, perhaps, and find indications good as far as they have gone down on it.

Much of this iron lead has been purchased by companies, and other lots are under option, but much of the property is free and can be bought very cheap; to illustrate, two years ago, I sold for forty dollars a lot three miles north of Dahlonega, which had a red hematite lead of iron ore through it, there was also located upon it a vein of what is supposed to be kaolin. If the railroad was in Dahlonega, how much would this lot bring? Forty hundred dollars. I know of other lots having this white kaolin deposit and iron ore too.

I might say here, that these great mineral deposits are worthless without a railroad, but with a railroad their development would be sure and they would be a great source of income to the road, and help to build up the country. Seven miles northwest of here, along the foot of the Blue Ridge, is another lead of iron ore, said to be an immense deposit of the ore, but I do not know its intrinsic value.

Another source of great wealth in Lumpkin county is this, the great water power of the Etowah and Chestate rivers. At the Dearing shoals is located a power plant that is generating and furnishing electricity to light up the city of Gainesville and furnish power to run the street railroads, etc; and also, at Sabolt shoals, near the head of Chestate river, is a power plant that furnishes electricity to run the pump that throws water on top of Crown Mountain to wash the ore down the mountain to the mill, operated by this electricity. This gold mine is one of the finest in the country, and is thought to be inexhaustible, and just here I will say that the gold mines of Lumpkin county are another source of great wealth. And for two years the City of Dahlonega has been furnished light from the electric plant of the Consolidated Co. on Yahoola creek.

So we have the minerals, which if the road comes, will be developed and be a great help to the road. We have the water power to generate the electricity, which will move all machinery and railroads which will be operated throughout the country.

One other thing we'll name, which is last but not least, the coal mines, reported recently to have been discovered north of Dahlonega, near the summit of the Blue Ridge, at several places. We have been told by some parties that the coal has actually been found there but in what quantities it may be discovered at considerable depth from the surface of the earth is not known. We could name other resources, that belong to our country, but will have to postpone the same to our next letter, except we will have as fine educational facilities in Dahlonega, both school and college, as any town in the state, and the school houses in the country are new or as well constructed as can be found anywhere, and we have fine teachers to occupy them.

The Rev. Jenkins Loyd Jones, of Chicago, declares: "The girl who reaches the age of twenty-five and can't cook a cake, or pie or ~~can't~~ make a shirt waist or trim a hat is not a true woman. She is a sham and her parents are responsible and ought to be punished for misdeemeanor."

Michael Murray, of Hereford, Mo., has in his possession what is said to be the biggest mule in the world. It is only three years old, is six feet high at the shoulders, and weighs 1705 pounds. Mr. Murray says he expects to have the mule on exhibition at the approaching World's fair, at St. Louis.

A peculiar muddy rain fell in San Francisco, a few days ago. When the rain water had dried off the streets it was found to have left a sediment of fine, light dust. The dust is believed to have come from the volcano of Santa Maria, in Guatemala, which broke out in violent eruption last October, causing great destruction. For some weeks the people of California have been witnessing some gorgeously colored sunsets, which they believe are occasioned by volcanic dust in the air.

It isn't every man who can sit down in his library and toast his shins before a fire that cost $5,000. That, however, is what Mr. G. F. Spalding of Springfield, Mass., did a few days ago. The coal was getting low in Mr. Spalding's bin, so he thought he would economize on that article and at the same time have a cozy fire by burning a number of old books for which he had no use. After he had concluded his book burning he discovered that he had consigned to the flames two rare old volumes worth $2,500 each and which cannot be duplicated. Mr. Spalding is now of the opinion that his economizing on coal was rather costly.—Savannah News.

The case of Judge J. B. Gaston vs. the Gainesville and Dahlonega Electric Railway Co., damages in Hall Superior court last week was a mistrial.

Tax collector Monk of Clinch county was last week extended more time by Gov. Terrell to make his bond, making the third time it has been extended.

The Atlanta News says it is rumored at the capitol that ex-Governor A. D. Candler would soon enter the field of journalism as the editor of the Augusta Chronicle, one of the oldest dailies in the state.

Gov. Terrell did not call on President Roosevelt while in Washington this week. The president's callers from the south will hereafter be like angels' visits, few and far between, on account of his fondness for colored people.

A telegram in the Atlanta News from Athens of the 29th ult., says: It is announced that President Stewart, of the North Georgia Agricultural college at Dahlonega, will get the place as state agent of the University of Georgia, created by the trustees at their recent meeting. Chancellor Hill will not give out any statement, but the fact that Mr. Stewart is well equipped for the place and has been here several days with local trustees and members of the faculty leads to the rumor that he will get the place.

The Banner School.

Editor NUGGET:

A careful examination of our school reports shows that Ashley school No. 13 has received the beautiful flag which has been presented to Lumpkin county by the "Youth's Companion" of Boston, Mass. Average attendance and contributions of money to pay for school furniture were the controlling features. One or two other schools were slightly ahead of Ashley, as to attendance, but those schools made up no money for the purchase of desks, etc. The library question was not allowed to enter into this contest. It may go so in 1903. In addition to good attendance, etc., the successful school shows the greatest improvement in music and singing. The environments of this school were not encouraging at first. No school had ever been successfully taught in that sub-school district, and teachers were reluctant to undertake the work. There was much whiskey drinking in that neighborhood, and no church privileges under three and four miles. Wonderful changes have occurred under the benign influences of this school. Few, if any, criminal cases now come up from that and Martin's Ford district. The U. S. prison has about given up all violators of the revenue laws from that neighborhood. A church and Sunday school are likely to be established this year.

W. P. PIERCE, Sr.,

Pres. Bd of Education.

P. S.—Please allow me to add that the flag will be presented to the school on Friday, February 18, at 3 o'clock, p. m.

A dog relieved Mr. W. J. High-tower of all the meat he had at his house the other night and he had to send to town for something to grease the skillet with before breakfast, which was not pleasant unless bacon was cheaper. He favors a higher dog tax now than ever doubtless.

Honor Roll.

The honor roll of Ashley School for January, 1903, is as follows: First Grade—Frank Hughes. Second Grade—Jessie Early, Florence Hughes, Joel Hulse, P. L. AUBORT, teacher.

First of last week a stranger was found wandering about on the streets of Atlanta. He had lost his mind, not even knowing his own name. The man was carried to police headquarters and remained in this condition for two or three days. At last he began to awake as from a dream and was persuaded to talk. It turned out to be Peter Duncan who used to reside at Auraria, Ga., six miles of Dahlonega, now a resident of Gainesville, a son-in-law of Mr. Joseph Bell of Atlanta. While here Mr. Duncan was known to be in bad health. He said that he knew that he could not live long in his present condition—never swore an oath or touched a drop of liquor. Said he wanted to be prepared to go when the summons was given. We all regret to learn of his continued bad health.

Hall Superior court adjourned last Saturday after a two weeks very busy session and Solicitor General Charters returned home to rest up a little, for he certainly made it warm for violators of the law down that way. And Judge Kinney made it very interesting to them by putting on the finishing touch as Col. Charters and the jury turned them over to him. Though reasonable enough for small misdemeanors, but when an old coon came before him the judge made it effective. Take for instance the well known blind tiger man Lipscomb. He had four cases against him for selling liquor right in Gainesville. He was convicted of the only one tried and fined five hundred dollars. The other cases were continued. John Bennett, formerly of this county, was only fined $25, being the first offense.

One thousand acres of land in southern Georgia have been donated to the Salvation Army by a Georgia woman.

President-appointed another negro last week in preference to a white man. This one is the collectorship at St. Mary.

The house bill providing for the improvement of the Confederate mound in Oakwood cemetery, Chicago, was passed by the senate last Saturday.

On Friday night lightning struck an electric cable at Niagara Falls and destroyed thousands of dollars worth of property and caused many factories to shut down.

Jim Hayes, the negro scamp who said in his speech at Washington "that it was time to put down negro cruelties in the south by the torch and sword" recently, has been invited to New Orleans to repeat it. We have no idea that Jimmie will go. If he does his neck should be stretched. White republicans make no such remarks about the South and negroes shouldn't be allowed to. There is no law abiding negro in the Southern states that will say he is mistreated by the whites.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send you the wonderful story of my mother who was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published. No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformant, sciatic, neuralgia, cold, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "sure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how my mother was cured. I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are weary and discouraged with "doctors" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you my own experience. Surely, if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR RAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Ind.

Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism no matter where located, send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR RAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Ind.

Robert Simmons, one of Roosevelt's negroes who was hanged at Savannah last Friday, wrote a poem short while before he took his flight entitled, "Joy Cometh in the Morning."

If the legislature of each state would pass a law prohibiting trains from running as fast as they do now there would not be so many wrecks and lives lost during the year. It ought to be done. A man these days when he steps into a train has no assurance of getting off alive again.

Sick Blood

Feed pale girls on Scott's Emulsion.

We do not need to give all the reasons why Scott's Emulsion restores the strength and flesh and color of good health to those who suffer from sick blood.

The fact that it is the best preparation of Cod Liver Oil, rich in nutrition, full of healthy stimulation is a suggestion as to why it does what it does.

Scott's Emulsion presents Cod Liver Oil at its best, fullest in strength, least in taste.

Young women in their "teens" are permanently cured of the peculiar disease of the blood which shows itself in paleness, weakness and nervousness, by regular treatment with Scott's Emulsion.

It is a true blood food and is naturally adapted to the cure of the blood sickness from which so many young women suffer.

We will be glad to send a sample to any sufferer. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

The case of Robert Patton vs. Mr. Guerrio, for a certain amount of money claimed to be due the plaintiff in this county for securing the defendant a wife, mentioned some time ago, has not been tried yet. It will be investigated at the next term of the Justices Court of Cane Creek district in this month.

Not long since a fellow, who never subscribed for a paper in his life wanted us to print a great "vigilante" telling how good his grandmother was and how she got to heaven. We declined, because he ought to have been taking his county paper and said something about it before.

The young lady and gentleman meeting on the public square and exchanging words of love frequently, just at dark, are going to create a small sensation if they don't mind. Girls should be more cautious. If a man doesn't think enough of them to be seen with them during daylight, their love is not very warm and is not worth seeking.

Mr. R. J. Swain, after an absence of some time down at his home returned to Dahlonega last Saturday after remaining a couple of weeks in Gainesville discharging his duties as court stenographer. We are all glad to see Mr. Swain back to our city for he is a clever man and as perfect a gentleman as ever lived.

Mr. J. W. Spencer, who had charge of the mechanical force down at the Consolidated mine so long, arrived in our city last Sunday. He has recently purchased property near Gainesville, a portion of it lying in the city, through which the Gainesville and Dahlonega railway will run. He has a saw mill and the property is well timbered and it can truthfully be said that he is strictly it. He says that it is reported that the post house down there is full of small-pox patients.

Col. J. H. Moore and lady have been down in the "land of flowers" this week.

We notice that some of our contemporaries double led their reading, and it is a very easy matter to read between the lines that it is just to fill up space.

County Treasurer J. B. Brown went out the other morning and killed two wild turkeys at one shot. Does pretty well for a man of about 60 summers.

Mr. Paul Castleberry of Dahlonega, who has been in business near Birmingham for some months has been very sick out there with smallpox more than five weeks.

They missed enough money at the recent box supper at Lower Cane Creek school house recently to purchase them a bell for the building that can be heard four miles.

It is said that parties residing elsewhere, having property in this county, want one hundred thousand dollars for it but rate it to the tax receiver at only $2,000. The difference is too great.

Mr. J. F. Moore was out last Saturday in search of good clay to make brick. Do you know what it means? A big brick business house on the corner where the old wooden building now stands.

Mr. F. G. Jones, Sr., has been appointed postmaster at Cane Creek in place of Mr. J. M. Jones, who resigned, and the office will be moved back to the old James Jones place as soon as the new postmaster's bond is accepted.

Uncle Hiram Duckett, next to the oldest citizen in Lumpkin county, was in Dahlonega last Saturday walking about as nimble as hundreds of people just half his age. He was born in 1812 and looks as if he was good for several more years.

After spending a couple of days looking over the mines, Messrs. McCabe and Stewart of Ohio, took their departure for home last Friday. It was Mr. Stewart's first visit here, and to see a gold mining plant operated by electricity was quite interesting to him.

Last Saturday we received new subscriptions and renewals from Marietta, O., Columbus, O., and Detroit, Mich., from members of the Standard, Consolidated, Crown Mountain and Cavender's Creek Companies, which show that they are very much interested in what is going on in the mineral industry here.

The Preachers Conference at this place was organized last Monday morning at the Methodist parsonage. Rev. E. C. Marks was elected permanent chairman, and Rev. D. J. Blackwell secretary. All resident ministers are members. The purpose of this organization is to promote the Kingdom of Christ. Revs. Gunn, White and Blackwell were appointed to draft constitution and by-laws.

Maj. Tison has rented the former F. W. Hall residence, near the Nugget office, and will move his family here in a few days. Maj. Tison, more than once has expressed himself as being well pleased with Dahlonega and its people, even while far away in China, at a time when he had no idea that he would ever be returned to this place. This causes the people of Dahlonega to extend to the Major and his family a most hearty welcome.

This week Arveta Sullins and his son, W. A. Sullins were bound over to the U. S. Court by Com. Baker charged with conspiracy, in a bond of $1,000 each which they failed to give. Some time ago John Barker was a witness against Sullins in the U. S. Court for blocking. Since that time Barker's house has been rocked and a picture of a man being hanged, passed up near his house warning him to leave. Barker left out some time ago and Mrs. Barker says that Sullins, his son and two other parties, not yet arrested, are the guilty ones.

It is reported here that Rosette Hollaway of this county, and her brother Joe, are now in jail in North Carolina for killing a pedler recently, while all were drinking. We only give it as it is given us, knowing nothing about it whatever.

Postmaster Farrow informs the Editor of the Gainesville Eagle that the new mail line, from that city via Garland to Dahlonega, will leave there at 7:30 or 8 o'clock. People can put up cheap boxes on the road and the carrier will receive it and carry it to its destination.

On our first page will be found a very interesting article written by Dr. N. F. Howard, about the different minerals here and the advantages to be derived from the building of the Gainesville and Dahlonega Electric line. The Doctor has written many articles about Lumpkin county but this is the best of all.

Our subscribers, last Thursday at Stay, were no doubt greatly disappointed by not receiving their NUGGETS. By a misunderstanding about the schedule we sent them in a few minutes late. The new schedule is five minutes earlier than the old one, and we got it mixed, but it won't occur any more. Look for them promptly hereafter.

The Chestatee Pyrites Co. is making an effort to enjoin the Cavender's Creek Gold Mining Co. from diverting the water of the Anderson and Spencer creeks. The papers were served by the sheriff last Tuesday on Mr. Wild, the general superintendent. W. A. Charters is plaintiff's attorney. This is causing no delay in the canal work whatever. Things are moving along like nothing had occurred, and it is said that the damages will be light, if any.

For a number of years the owners of the Ducktown copper mines have been experiencing great trouble, caused by the smoke of their furnaces, creating many damage suits in that section for miles around. Big amounts of money have been offered by the different companies for an invention of some kind to prevent it. Up to this time no one has succeeded or even made an effort to do so that we know of. But we are glad to state that two of Dahlonega's citizens feel confident that they can do it. Not only stop the smoking damage, but condense it in such a manner as to make it valuable in the manufacture of acid. The persons referred to are Profs. J. W. Boyd and B. P. Gaillard, now teachers in the N. G. A. College. Some correspondence has already commenced between these gentlemen and parties in Tennessee.

At a meeting of the city council Mr. Geo. Walker was appointed night watch to take the place of Mr. Lafayette Carter who had before been appointed by Mayor Baker until the council met. No change in the salary.

Deputy Marshal Grizzle went up into White county last Sunday and brought in a large still and Jack Edge. It was near Jack's premises. They already had a warrant for him and it was for which he was arrested.

On last Saturday Col. A. P. Bell of Waynesboro, Ga., was married at Gainesville, to Miss Bertie Castleberry, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Castleberry. Mr. Bell used to attend college at Dahlonega.

A letter from Jennie Free this week states that she had no light as was mentioned in last week's Nugget. We make the correction with pleasure for life is too short to admonish too numerous for women to fight about any of them.

All who are indebted to E. E. Crisson either by note or account and do not settle by the 15th of the present month will find their accounts in the hands of an officer for collection.

Yours very truly,
E. E. CRISSON.

Mr. J. G. McGee, who has been down the county trading horses for some time, came home last Sunday evening for the purpose of remaining and Mr. J. M. Brookshire, his partner, who was at home on a few weeks visit, has returned.

Cadet Wadley, who returned from home near Macon last week received a telegram soon afterwards stating that his father was at the point of death. He was quarantined down at Mr. McKees where Mr. Cochran has the small pox, but he slipped out at night. There may be no danger as he had not been about the patients room.

On last Monday Mr. J. B. Brown, the present county treasurer, brought to our office an Indian cup which he plowed up with a big twister while farming several years ago on Col. Baker's farm. It is quite an interesting relic made by the hands of some yellow man who has long since gone to the happy hunting ground.

Mr. William Grow from this county, died in the asylum Monday night and his remains were brought home for interment. The deceased came from Forsyth county forty or forty-five years ago who has been a resident of Lumpkin county ever since. Was a strict member of the church and lived a christian life as long as his mind was right. He leaves a wife and many relatives to mourn his loss.

A general row occurred at Jim Adams Saturday night but we do not know the particulars.

Mattie Adams knocked Will Ward in the head Saturday night, because Ward misbehaved.

Mr. John Jackson, who has been living down at New Bridge for awhile, has moved back to Dahlonega.

It may be that no state oratorical contest will be held this year, if ever again. The Dahlonega college boy wears the belt all the same.

Several hunters from Buford and other places, are camped over in the eastern portion of this county, where lands are not posted, killing birds and rabbits for the lower markets.

Yesterday while the water was over the Yaboola bridge and Uncle Floyd Anderson undertook to drive across it his mule stepped off and all went into the water. The mule got back and the driver saved himself by catching to some bushes.

Last Sunday when U. S. Deputy Marshal Grizzle visited an illicit distillery in White county he brought the still home and notified Deputy Collector Richardson at Gainesville so he could come and destroy it as had been the custom when not having time to notify a collector before making a raid. On Tuesday Mr. Richardson arrived in Dahlonega who, under a new ruling, had to hire a team and carry the still away back into White county and cut it up where it was found, showing that Rucker intends to be recognized and his men must do the work though the heavens fall. So hereafter in order that this negro collector of Georgia receive proper recognition his deputies, when visiting distilleries must wear a black dough-face, colored gloves and use the following ceremony with an up lifted ax: "I now cut thee in the name of U. S. Collector Rucker, Hon. Booker Washington and the new Mississippi postmaster. Amen."

Mr. H. D. Jaquish was in the city last Tuesday. He had just returned from a two weeks visit to New York and is going right back in the interest of his mine in this county. Making arrangements to operate it on a large scale. The recent prospecting assures him that he has a good gold mine and with abundance of water power of his own right on the property can get it ready for operation cheap, and is bound to make it pay.

Everything out at Cavender's Creek gold mine presents a lively appearance, and all work is being pushed with a vim. Near 125 hands are employed on buildings, at the saw mill and on the ditches. A new addition is being made to the store house and another residence going up. The canal work is moving along splendidly. About one hundred hands are engaged on it and up to last Saturday over five miles of the two prongs were completed.

Latter part of last week Mr. Breyman, president of the Standard Gold Mining Co., arrived in the city, in company with Mr. Ainsie, president of the Consolidated. Both gentlemen have been making frequent visits to the properties since their arrival, but what they have decided to do is not known to us yet. Had these gentlemen been at the head of these enterprises at the beginning we are satisfied that things would have been in much better shape than they are today, for we feel confident that they would have seen that a smaller plant at the Hand and two or three miles on other properties belonging to the companies would have been more business like.

Prof. and Mrs. Hix, his newly wedded bride came up from Hall last Saturday and gave us a call. To claim a beautiful bride is the happiest earthly bliss. Luck to you Hix.

Mr. H. M. Towler called down last Sunday afternoon to have a few words of cheer for Mr. Daniel Hyden who is the oldest man in the county. He is said to be over a hundred years old.

We were greatly surprised at a late hour last Saturday night by the sweet music of the college quartette. If the young ladies served as an object of their visit we think they will come again.

Rev. Mr. Little of Alabama preached at the Baptist church here Sunday.

Corporal Lumpkin was down with us only a short while Sunday afternoon. Come again brother when you can stay longer.

The Betz Mines under their new supervision, Mr. Arnold, is preparing for more extensive operations in the near future.

The following are those who attained the honor roll this month:—

Annie Summercon, Frank and Garland Christian, Lizzie Hutchinson, Howell Miller, Carrie Free, John Trammel, Grady Brackett, Greengrass Bruce, Azza Norrel, Edith Bell, and Kate Summercon.

The pupils have been judged solely upon the merits of their work without any respect to persons and those above are the ones who have come up to the required mark. Many others however are doing good work.

Mining Notes.

No work could be done on the canals for two days this week on account of the heaviest and most rain we have had in 5 long time.

Work continues on the Banning both day and night. They are down on the incline about 270 feet, and the ore grows richer, now showing free gold.

The Ingersoll and Crisson boat continues to pay well. The clean ups have been about 20 ounces a week of pure gold. The Hager boat in the river below is also doing well.

Jenkins and Adams are still at work on the Free Jim lot near the colored Baptist church, making it very profitable, as they have been taking out ore worth about seven dollars per ton.

The options on mineral lands by Mr. McMan of Louisville, Ky., in the lower portion of this county, covers about 2,000 acres of some of the most valuable property in the whole mining belt.

We have had an abundance of rain and Crown Mountain can continue to run on full time as it has for the last few weeks, with splendid results. In the near future Gen. Warner expects to begin the shaft on the Wallace vein, one of the best and richest in the whole section.

Mr. McMan of Louisville, Ky., was registered at Hall's Villa last Saturday. This gentleman has been down in the lower part of the county for two or three weeks taking options on mineral lands. He has already secured several hundred acres, among it being the properties of Dr. Smith, Stevens, Cochran and others.

Mr. H. D. Jaquish was in the city last Tuesday. He had just returned from a two weeks visit to New York and is going right back in the interest of his mine in this county. Making arrangements to operate it on a large scale. The recent prospecting assures him that he has a good gold mine and with abundance of water power of his own right on the property can get it ready for operation cheap, and is bound to make it pay.

T. H. Barker Killed.

Below we give an account of the killing of Mr. T. H. Barker, as clipped from the Sherman Weekly Democrat of December 25, 1902, who went to Texas from Lumpkin county some four or five years ago:

T. H. Barker was shot and killed shortly before noon Tuesday. The killing took place on the public road about one mile west of Sherman, and just a little distance west of the residence of Buck Shrader. Mr. Barker was in a buggy with his wife and they were on their way to Sherman. Two shots were fired, but only one took effect. The ball entered Mr. Barker's back just below the right shoulder blade and passed entirely through his body, coming out at the front of the right breast. He died instantly, in fact without speaking after the shot was fired. Sheriff Bill Russell with other officers went in pursuit of Everett Fairless, a 16-year-old lad, who is charged with the shooting. As soon as the shooting was done the sheriff and chief of police were notified and officers were soon on the scene. The body of Mr. Barker was placed on a load of seed cotton and brought to the undertaking establishment of R. R. Dunlon, where it was viewed by the coroner and prepared for burial. Mrs. Barker, who was in the buggy with her husband, when the shooting took place, was seen by a Democrat reporter. She said:

"We were coming to Sherman. Ahead of us was a man on horseback with a gun in his hand. We overtook and passed him, and I noticed that it was Everett Fairless. He rode along behind us and after we passed he caused his horse to go faster in order to keep up with us. When we reached the small bridge on the road in the little grove just west of Sherman a shot was fired and my husband fell over in my lap. I turned my head and Everett Fairless with his gun pointed at us. I tried to get him not to shoot again but he fired a second shot."

Chief Blain, who arrived on the scene in a short time after the killing, made the following statement to a Democrat reporter:

"When I reached the scene Barker was dead. We made an examination of his wounds and found that but one bullet hit him. He had in his pocket two revolvers."

On the 26th of July, 1902, Robert Fairless, a father of Everett Fairless, was shot and killed by T. H. Barker. The killing took place on the Sherman and Pottersburg road, about two miles northwest of the county farm, between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening. Barker was arrested, charged with murder. When his case came to trial about three weeks ago, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

It is evident that further trouble has been feared since that time, from the fact that two revolvers were found on Mr. Barker after the killing Tuesday.

A son of Mr. Barker was coming to the city with a load of seed cotton, but he was a mile or more behind his father when the shooting was done. He was seen by a reporter and made the following statement:

"I did not see the shooting. As I came in, though, I met Everett Fairless going west on a horse and the horse was at full speed. Everett Fairless was carrying a gun then."

T. H. Barker was 52 years old. He leaves a wife and ten children. His home was northwest of Sherman, in the county farm neighborhood.

FAIRLESS IS IN JAIL.

Fairless was arrested by Sheriff Bill Russell and is now in the county jail. He was seen by a Democrat reporter and made the following statement:

"I started to Chehaw this morning. I was going there hunting. That is the reason I had my gun. Barker passed me on the road, and as he did so he put his hand in his hip pocket or in his belt and I thought that he was going to shoot me. After Barker got by me I thought he was going to shoot, and I decided that I had better kill him than to let him kill me, so I fired. I had no intention whatever of killing Barker, until I thought he was going to kill me. I had started to Sherman to surrender when I met the sheriff."

The Old Wood Fire.

After the evening chores were done my father would appear in the doorway with the big backlog coated with snow, often of ampler girth than himself and fully breast high to him as he held it upright, canting it one way and another and walking it before him on its wedge shaped end. He would perhaps stand it against the chimney while he took a breathing spell and planned his campaign. Then, the andirons hauled forward on the hearth and the bed of half burned brands and live coals raked open, the icy log was walked into the chimney, where a skillful turn would lay it over, hissing and steaming in its lair of hot embers. It seemed a thing alive, and its vehement spitting and protesting made a dramatic moment for at least one small spectator.

The stout shovel and tongs or perhaps a piece of firewood used as a lever would force it against the chimney back; then a good sized stick, called a "back stick," was laid on top of it, and the andirons another good sized stick was laid, called a "fore stick," and in the interspace smaller sticks were crossed and thrust and piled, all quickly kindled by the live coals and brands. In very cold weather a fire was kept burning all night, our father getting up once or twice to replenish it. Even in summer the coals rarely became extinct. A good heap of them covered with embers at bedtime would be found alive when raked open in the morning.

—J. T. Trowbridge in Atlantic.

Tongue Twisters.

One who wants good tongue exercise may get it by reading or by attempting to read rapidly the following sentence, published in the Atlanta Constitution. For those who may have to speak or read in public there is more in such exercise than mere fun:

Six little thistle sticks.
Flesh of freshly fired fish.
Two toads totally tired tried to trot to Tedbury.
The sea ceaseeth, but suffeth us.
Give Grimos Jim's great gilt gig whip.

Heretofore it has been the rule in New York for wife-beaters to escape punishment on the plea of the unfortunate wives, made to the courts, that the sentencing of their husbands to prison would deprive them of the means of support for several months. Now, however, a number of charitable persons have made up a fund for the express purpose of providing for the wives and children of such wife-beaters as are convicted and sentenced to imprisonment. The courts have been informed of the raising of this fund, and urged to give brutal husbands all the punishment the law will permit.

The Pennsylvania Railroad is going to lay nickel-steel rails on all of the heavy curves on its lines. Nickel-steel is the metal of which armor plate for warships is made and the rails to be used will be in all respects as hard as armor plate. Standard steel rails on heavy grades wear quickly and have to be replaced at short intervals. Nickel-steel rails cost about three times as much as the standard rails, but it is believed their use will prove economical in the long run.

The heavy fog at Savannah, Ga., last week rendered it impossible for ships to enter or leave the harbor.

Teach Your Daughter to Work.

Any American girl is possibly, and probably going to need to fall back on her own resources some time. The ups and downs of life are too uncertain, too conspicuous to need pointing out. To bring up a girl without any training in a useful occupation is not simply imprudent and foolish, but it is wicked. Feminine character needs independence to make and keep it sweet and perfect. The darkest tragedies of life grow out of the ignorance, helplessness and dependence of women. Courage, training in work, independence of character and self reliance—these, with high ideals of womanhood for inspiration, are what every girl needs. Only through intelligent work can the highest character be attained, and, the growth of character is the whole purpose of this school which we call "the world." — February Woman's Home Companion.

Tightly Locked From Nervous Spasms.

Physicians Could Not Prevent Fits.

Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure My Wife.

Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure has been successfully tried in thousands of cases of nervous disorder, but never has it made a better record than when used in the treatment of fits or spasms. Thousands of testimonials prove this, and in nearly every instance the writer has stated that the fits ceased after the first dose of Nerve Cure was given. The statement is repeated in the following:

Having years ago my wife commenced having spasms or fits and I called in my home physician and he said she was paralyzed. He rubbed her with salt water and gave her calomel and she eventually got some better, but in a short time she had another attack. She was confined to her bed for three months and the doctor could not help her. She had fits frequently, some times very severe. Her hands would cramp so we could not open them and she finally got so her hands would become locked. Finally I saw the doctor was doing her no good and ordered a bottle of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve Cure. She received so much benefit from the first bottle that I got some more. She has taken a number of bottles but has never had a fit since taking the first one. She also thinks very highly of Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and is never without them. If there is any way of making this testimonial stronger do so because of the good the Dr. Miles Restorative Nerve Cure did my wife.—Wm. V. Adams, E. M. Elkville, Miss.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
Cures Colds; Prevents Pneumonia

PNEUMONIA

follows a cold, but never follows the use of

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

It stops the cough and heals the lungs and prevents a cold from settling on your lungs and resulting in Pneumonia, Pleurisy, or Consumption.

You are in no danger of serious results if FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is taken; as it soothes and heals the inflamed air passages and the cough disappears.

Be sure and get FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, as preparations containing opiates stop the cough temporarily by paralyzing the nerves in the throat and leave the germs of serious lung trouble and you get one cold on another because the first one was not cured perfectly.

Saved Her Life From Pneumonia.

"My wife had a severe attack of Pneumonia which followed a severe attack of La Grippe and I believe that FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR saved her life," writes James Coffee, of Raymond, Missouri.

Dr. C. J. Bishop, Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR in three very severe cases of Pneumonia with good results in every case."

Cured When Very Low With Pneumonia.

J. W. Bryan, of Lowder, Ill., writes: "My little boy was very low with Pneumonia. Unknown to the doctor we gave him FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. The result was magical and puzzled the doctor, as it immediately stopped the racking cough and he quickly recovered."

Lumpkin County's Resources and the R. R.

[BY DR. S. F. HOWARD.]

DAHLONEGA NUGGET: We promised to call attention to some other dormant resources of our county that would yield quite a revenue to the railroad and the people when said railroad reached our place. Since we wrote of the copper pyrite the vein was opened two miles north of Dahlonega forty years ago, a friend of ours has confirmed all we said about it, stating he had been in the shaft years ago. He also stated that there was a magnetic vein of ore in the large lead of iron ore 1 spoke of crossing the county 7 or 8 miles northwest of Dahlonega. A party has recently been prospecting said vein and speaks highly of the value and quantity of the ore. Also beyond this at the foot of the Blue Ridge, near Cooper's gap, a party has purchased the mica in two lots, one on each side of Mr. W. Saine's farm, and will open them at once, so Mr. S. informs me. This mineral has been discovered in considerable quantities, on the south side of the Blue Ridge, in this county, all along from the head of Chestnut to the Etowah.

We have also soapstone, in large amounts, both east and west of Dahlonega.

Crossing the wagon road from Dahlonega to Cooper's gap, 10 miles, there are 5 gold veins, 4 iron ore veins, 1 copper, 1 kaolin, and also mica and manganese. We suppose that four-fifths of this wagon-road to the foot of the mountain at Cooper's gap is of light enough grade for a trolley line without changing the grade.

The next great resource of wealth of this county that we have, is the timber interest, which will be developed when the railroad reaches here. The two great timbers are the oak and hickory, which are so abundant, and can be utilized for the purpose of the wood-work for the manufacture of carriages and for handles of all tools, etc.

We have scattered through the county other hard woods, but not so abundant as the following: Black walnut, black locust, ash, maple, mountain birch, wild cherry, and also poplar is quite abundant.

When the railroad comes to Dahlonega machinery will be put up and run by water, that will convert this timber into all kinds of wooden tools and implements named, and be shipped away on the railroad to the city markets for sale, and the money will return to benefit the people.

One other source of wealth we will name, which is of the vegetable kingdom. Potatoes, turnips, cabbage, tomatoes, beets, and all other vegetables, as well as apples, peaches, plums, peas, grapes, and all other things of like character could be raised in great abundance in the county, from early spring to late fall, and be shipped upon the railroad to market and the income would reach the farmers and benefit them, and so the people, the farmers, especially, would be encouraged to make everything which is to be eaten, to supply their own wants, and ship twice as much to foreign markets as a cash income to them. None of the above articles can be safely shipped by wagons without great damage.

Many other interests could be named that would be greatly benefited by the coming railroad, but we close for the present.

P. S.—I trust this road will be built and am pretty sure now that it will be at pretty-early day.

In 1866, when I was a member of the legislature, I prepared a bill to get a charter for a railroad from Gainesville to Dahlonega. I requested Col. Jasper N. Dorsey, one of the members from Hall county, to introduce the bill for me. The charter was granted. Some years ago Col. Dorsey passed away. Benjamin J. Davis wrote the bill for me. He enlisted in the first company that went to the war from Dahlonega, was wounded near Arlington heights, brought back to a hospital in Virginia and had his leg amputated above the knee. His wife, whose maiden name was Sallie Parker, left her only child, little Sallie Gilbertine, and went to Virginia to nurse her companion. He recovered, but his wife sickened and died. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Parker were her parents. They had emigrated to this place from Boston. Some years ago they both died. Little Sallie Gilbertine grew up and made a bright intelligent young woman. She still lives. Several years ago her father passed away.

Appointment of Negroes to Office.

Public offices are not created by the government to reward individuals or classes, to support partisans or to make friends, but solely for the purpose of administering functions of the government, to execute the law and to establish justice.

A government executive officer can always perform his duty better when he has the sympathy, moral support, respect and confidence of the people among whom he is placed, and in substantial accord with the best classes of citizens. Can this be done when a negro is appointed to a position of postmaster in the Southern States or to any other position whatever where he is brought in to frequent and close business relations with the intelligent white people of the community?

The fatal error in the administration of the affairs of Ireland by the English government was in placing in official positions persons who were obnoxious to the Irish people. The result is seen in a hereditary alienation of three-fourth of the people of Ireland from the British government. There is no loyalty in their hearts. The representatives of Ireland in Parliament are now and have been for several generations a disorganizing note, a drawback to legislation, a thorn that always pricks, a body that feels bound by the inspirations of inheritance and national hatred to do everything in opposition to the passage of such laws as will benefit the British empire. When the nation is at war Ireland must be watched, when financial difficulties come no relief can be expected from the people of Ireland, when calamities stalk over the land Ireland rejoices. It is a dead body attached to a living soul. A people warm in their impulses and affections, steadfast to the principles of liberty, gifted with intellectual endowments and second to none in courage and in the genius for war have so long been overpowered and overshadowed by unwise methods of government that in their own land they are without influence in the world's history and are condemned to live amid environments that make impossible for them ever to achieve greatness in their own country. They leave their land to swell the prosperity of other nations.

If Mr. Roosevelt is as much a statesman as he is a scholar, if his investigation of the history of such men as Cromwell and Pym and Russell and Sidney have been for anything, if he has studied the story of Washington and Lincoln, then he ought to know something at least of the power of popularity among the people. If his ideas of a republican form of government have been formed from a thorough study of history of our own times, they ought to teach him that the people are best served by a servant who wins their approbation while serving them. A man of sound judgment will not even employ a laborer that is obnoxious to him, a woman will not employ a nurse distasteful to her, a gentleman will not have a servant that he despises. Why, then should a large community be served by one who is disliked by or obnoxious to three-fourths of the persons in the community and by nine-tenths of those with whom he is brought into close business relations?

No nation will accept from another nation as a minister or ambassador one is persona non grata—that is one not in sympathy with the government to which he is accredited. Ought the President elected by the people to be less observant of the courtesies due his people than he is of the courtesies due the foreign power?

Evidence is accumulating that Mr. Roosevelt is animated in the appointment of officers not so much because they may be capable, honest and efficient in administering the law as for the effect such appointments may have in the next nominating convention. What a descensus!

Mr. Roosevelt started out right. No other man ever came to the presidency with more of the good will of the people of the United States. All over the South it was thought that he would be an ideal President. Men who had never before spoke a good word for a republican President spoke well of Mr. Roosevelt. It was believed that he would unite in his own person the generosity, courage and frankness of the Southern people with the conservatism and business methods of the best class in the North. He has disappointed both of these classes, and is following the unwise traditions of the ultra element in his own party which it was thought his predecessor had destroyed.

The country wants political peace, that prosperity may not be checked or impaired by feeling of ill-will between the sections.—Manufacturers' Record.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, FEBRUARY 12, 1903.

Entered at the Postoffice at Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Official Organ of both City and County.

At Ashland, Ky., recently a showman and a man's wife eloped in a balloon.

Last week while we were having warm rainy weather Chicago was experiencing one of the severest blizzards known in years.

At Tallulah Falls last week, while James G. Smith and Irvin Rothell were out hunting, the latter's gun fell killing Smith.

Right recently many of the wells about Ducktown, Tenn., have gone dry, supposed to be caused from blasts in the mines, causing a good deal of alarm.

The Superior court of Jackson county was adjourned last week until the first Monday in May, on account of the prevalence of small pox in that county.

On the fourth page of this issue you will see that Mark Hanna wants to pension the negro slaves, as well as the amount he has introduced in congress for each to have.

One reason there are so many divorce suits many men get deceived in their wives. Before the wedding they pretend to be very smart but afterwards are too lazy to rise and get breakfast.

At Pittsburg, Penn., the other day four men held another while the fifth drove a spike through his foot into the floor where he was left till some one came along and released him.

The negroes are strictly in it now. Roosevelt and Hanna are both fishing for their votes. One is baiting his hook with public offices and the other wants to use pensions. Either one makes good bait.

Bro. Thomas of the Dawsonville Advertiser is now running an undertakers business in connection with his office and is fully prepared to put away his delinquent subscribers at short notice and in good style.

The Gainesville Eagle came to us last week bright and sparkling with all kinds of interesting news. The ride on the electric cars did Brother Craig good, causing his favorite bird to have a more healthy appearance than usual.

Samuel S. Hudson, a Confederate veteran of Clarke county, was found dead in his cabin the other morning. It is supposed that he was murdered for his pension money, which he had not drawn at the time, but would this week.

More than sixty tons of fertilizers were seized at Brunswick one day last week by the fertilizer inspector of the agricultural department of Georgia, which had just arrived from Baltimore and not tagged with the signature of Commissioner Stevens.

Pursuant to a decree by Judge Newman in the United States court last week, the mines and property of the Crigien Milling and Mining Co., located in Cherokee county, will be sold on March 3rd. This action was based on a suit brought by a large stockholder and a small creditor.

We clip from the Baltimore Manufacturers' Record an article concerning the appointment of negroes to office in the south, to be found on the 1st page of this issue. It deals in plain truths, none of which can be denied, and can't help but meet the approval of all conservative people reading it.

A negro from Rome, after getting drunk in Atlanta the other night, called at a hotel and demanded a room and wouldn't leave until he was carried to the lock-up by a policeman. If he wishes to be cared for by white people he will next time have to go to Washington City and see Mr. Roosevelt.

Two trains crashed together near Macon last Tuesday, injuring fourteen persons.

In Atlanta last week 75 persons were excluded from the Baptist church who had not paid their dues.

Marie Fields, a negro woman dropped dead at police station the other day while smoking a cigarette in Atlanta.

The rise of about 38 feet in the river at Columbus caused the loss of one span in the new steel bridge. Damage $4,500.

We notice with pleasure that Mr. Orville H. Hall has been nominated for the Captaincy of the Capital City Guards of Atlanta.

The grand jury of Bibb has returned a bill against Mrs. E. L. Carson who killed Robt. Bigsby recently, and she is now out on a $6,000 bond.

The electric lights were turned on Blue Ridge one night last week. Mr. Carter, the president of the Bank of Dahlonega, is at the head of the enterprise.

More than 1,000 persons were killed and eighty islands of the Society group, in the southern sea, were devastated on January 15 by a huge tidal wave that swept across the island dotted sea.

An effort is being made now to raise the president's salary from $50,000 to $100,000 annually, causing the Columbus Times to remark that it would be best to first get one that is worthy.

In New York the wife of a minister of the gospel has gone on the vaudeville stage, with the consent of her husband, to make money to pay for the education of her son; and at the same time the members of her husband's congregation are probably collecting funds to send to the heathen in Boorrio-Boola-Gha.—Savannah News.

In Atlanta one night last week a negro man killed a negro woman with his wooden leg. The proper inscription for her tombstone is, "Old sister Caroline was put to rest by Brother Peter Mahoney's wooden leg." We don't know what will become of brother Peter, but he ought to be hang and the wooden leg sent to Senator Hanna so he can keep the old negroes memory green the rest of his life.

PROFIT

The matter of feed is of tremendous importance to the farmer. Wrong feeding is loss. Right feeding is profit.

The up-to-date farmer knows what to feed his cows to get the most milk, his pigs to get the most pork, his hens to get the most eggs. Science.

But how about the children? Are they fed according to science, a bone food if bones are soft and undeveloped, a flesh and muscle food if they are thin and weak and a blood food if there is anemia?

Scott's Emulsion is a mixed food; the Cod Liver Oil in it makes flesh, blood and muscle, the Lime and Soda make bone and brain. It is the standard scientific food for delicate children.

Send for free sample.

Be sure that the picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

In Griffin last Sunday the police made a raid on a gambling den and arrested 18 negroes. They will have to behave themselves better than this if they expect Mr. Hanna to get them a pension.

Rockefeller's proposition to give the south a hundred thousand dollars a year is going to cause oil to be high a long time. He will advance the price enough to make this back besides thousands extra. In this way the whole people contribute this amount but this man of great wealth gets the praise and credit for it.

It is wonderful to note the number of people of North Georgia moving west. The little interest manifested in farming causing the land to become poorer, year by year, together with the increase of population makes it necessary for many to seek other clime will some day reach the climax if farmers do not resort to scientific methods of farming.—Ellijay Times.

They talk about a man's inhumanity to man, but this, the truth, is nothing compared with woman's inhumanity to woman. Next to a new hat, nothing pleases the average woman more than to hear of the downfall or misfortune of some sister. A man generally is sorry when he learns that a woman has met with misfortune of any kind, but a woman gloats over it with a joy that is truly fiendish. Strange, but true. Of course there are some grand exceptions, but the exceptions are few.—Ex.

Of Interest To Teachers.

Applicants who desire to secure a third grade license should study.

1. The Common School Branches. 2. Manual and Methods for Georgia Teachers. 3. Pages Theory and Practice of Teaching.

Applicants who desire to secure a second grade license should study 1. The Common School Branches. 2. Manual and Methods for Georgia Teachers. 3. Pages Theory and Practice of Teaching. 4. Roark's Methods in Education.

Applicants for first grade license should study the above lists, as only one set of questions will be prepared but the questions will be so graded that two or three questions on each subject will be more difficult than the others. By this means, while not lowering the standard of third and second grade licenses, I have to raise the standard for a first grade license and for a permanent state license.

If the applicants for first grade license expect to send their examination papers to this department and make application for permanent state license, it will be well for them to review carefully the following books or subjects in addition to the above lists:

1. Civics (with History).
2. Spencer's Essays on Education.
3. History and Philosophy of Education.
4. Psychology.
5. English and American Literature (with Grammar and Reading).
6. Elementary Physics and Physical Geography (with common school geography).

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published. No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformed, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "cure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how mother was cured. I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and I want to cure everyone who suffers with Rheumatism at all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparent beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this week of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are treated and discouraged with "doctors" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experiences. Surely, if you have written to me as the property of Daniel Proctor, I will pay you to investigate my offer, away, and prove for yourself these claims I make.

Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism no matter where located, send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR RAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Ind.

Local News.

Mr. F. P. Catchings of Gainesville, was up to Dahlonega last week.

Eggs are retailing at 15 cents per dozen in Dahlonega, clear out of reach of country editors.

Miss Martha Ferguson, a sister of Rev. C. M. Ferguson, was adjudged a lunatic last Thursday.

Besides a number of Dahlonega's bar, Hon. G. D. Bruce and Mr. Henry McGuire visited Dawsonville last week.

Postmaster Tate did a rushing money order business last month. It amounted to near $1,000. Pretty good for a town away up in the mountains without a railroad.

Later part of last week the tube of the Consolidated, near Mr. Butlers burst, causing the electric lights to go out, and our citizens had to bring their oil lamps in to use again for a night.

Mr. Russell of Louisville, one of Crown Mountain's stockholders, came in Friday and was present during the clean up at the mine, and the quantity of gold made caused him to look very pleasing.

Pastors who subscribed money to work to help build a fence around the cemetery at Bethlehem and Jones' Chapel, are requested to come forward and carry out their obligation. Everything is ready now.

Arverta Sullins and his son, who were bound over by U. S. Com. Baker last week for conspiracy, were carried to Atlanta last Friday by Marshal Grizzle. All the trouble grew out of manufacturing liquor in violation of law in a little copper still over on the river. It was a kind of a settlement still, very small, yet it has heaped up mountains of trouble and the end is not yet.

How cheeky some people are. Not long ago a certain person, above suspicion, left Dahlonega owing us some on subscription. Later on we sent him a statement, which never received any notice. And last week we received from him a letter requesting us to give him a great long puff that was enclosed. Should any one like to see it they will find it in our waste basket until it is destroyed.

The Caverdore Creek Mining Co., in this county, has petitioned the department to establish a postoffice at that mine and change the day mail from three times a week to a daily, except Sunday. This would be very convenient, for the citizens of that section. Up to this time the company has had a daily mail to Dahlonega, but it is a private line and pretty expensive. We trust that they will get it.

If men would be just half as prompt as women in business there would be a great many more prosperous people in the country than are today. You may make just a little cross mark on ones paper as a notice that her subscription is out and the next thing you see will be the lady with the money. Men don't do this way. Often many of them will shun the editor for weeks, and when unable to do so any longer, will ask him to take his pay in wood or something they haven't got.

Two letters were received at this office from females last week, causing us to think that we would be able to start a society column, but upon examination found that it was just to the reverse—didn't want their names to appear in the paper. We would advise all such to go to the church and confess their sins to the preacher, and not to the Nugger. Now if you don't prefer to do this, come to our place of business and say, "Here I stand on two little chips, come and kiss my sweet little lips," and we will assure you that you will get the sympathy of the entire office force, from the devil on up to the editor, some of whom may accommodate you. But don't go to getting mad and accuse some one of telling falsehoods.

Mr. J. E. McGee has bought Mr. J. M. Brooksher's interest in the mercantile business and is now running it alone.

Charlie Crisson returned from Ducktown last week. Charlie has got enough of the smoky region and does not expect to go back.

The visiting hunters over in Wahoo district, this county, last week had splendid luck. The first day they killed twenty rabbits and nineteen birds.

It rained just half of last week so hard that all kinds of outdoor work had to be suspended, and farmers were unable to get to town with their produce.

FOR SALE.—Good milk cow, now fresh. For information apply to Mrs. S. M. COLEMAN, 419 New Bridge, Ga.

Drop into the Nugger office and see our new line of stationery. Remember you can get from us the material and it printed for just what you have to pay for the blank envelopes or paper elsewhere.

Mr. Wylie, who has spent some time down in the mines about Birmingham, Ala., has returned home and going to work at the pyrites mine. The old saying that "There is no place like home," is a very true one. Others have returned.

The student who withdrew from the college the other day went off complaining about the town, only had this excuse. We understand that he had been violating some of the college rules and did this to keep from being exposed and may be expelled. So it is not the town. It's the boy.

The advance in the price of oil is causing more of our citizens to use electric lights, furnished by the Consolidated Co's plant. The lights can be seen in nearly every business house, the dormitory and many residences in town. Recently Dr. Jones had them put in to his dwelling and the Masonic building will also be furnished.

Our office was visited last Sunday by Messrs. Tregent and Tower, both of whom are interested in mining in the lower portion of this county. Their conversation was very pleasant and interesting, not being mixed with politics in the least. They live in the north but came to Lumpkin county to be sociable and to make money and we trust that their efforts will not be in vain.

Nightwatchman Walker's attention was attracted Friday night to a strange noise in the direction of the Dahlonega Bank. With his stick under one arm and a pistol in each hand George quietly made his way to the lot in rear of the bank to see if safe blowers were not getting in their work. After listening, and looking in the bank and about the premises, he crouched down in a dark corner to await further developments. The watchful official had not more than comfortably seated himself until a little puff of wind came and the wheel of the wind mill up over him turned and raised the alarm for more grease.

There is quite a difference here in the people and the place since thirty and forty years ago. Then groceries were on nearly every corner and rowing and fighting occurred almost daily. Now peace and quietude reign over the entire place and barrooms have long since been a thing of the past, and good schools, churches and a college take their places. Where the beautiful Presbyterian church now stands used to be a grocery and a ten pin ally. Likewise where the big brick Baptist church is erected. Sunday use to be the biggest drinking and fighting day. We once heard an old citizen, who has passed away, say that he saw half a dozen fights on the first Sunday he arrived here as he was going out to the cemetery. Street fights in Dahlonega on Sunday never occur these days and visitors can go where they please without being molested.

Postmaster Tate visited Dawsonville Monday.

Gen. Warner left last Tuesday for the east.

Fidler sold this week here at $2.00 per hundred.

All kinds of garden seeds at J. F. Moore & Co., both in packages and bulk.

Mrs. D. J. Blackwell left this week on a visit to her old home at Rapley, S. C.

We are glad to state that it has ceased raining and is bright and clear as we go to press.

Mrs. Hutchins has rented the Burnside or Dahlonega Hotel and takes charge about the 15th of next month.

By reference to our Auraria correspondent's letter the many friends of Mr. James Hughes will regret to learn that he has passed away.

Recently Mr. Orville H. Hall, formerly of Dahlonega but now a resident of Atlanta, was wedded in that city to Miss Fannie Craig-miles.

Mrs. G. C. Wallace has purchased Mrs. Strickland's millinery goods and will continue business at the same stand occupied by Mrs. Strickland on the square.

The Galdistown mail will start at the end of the route hereafter as follows: Leave Dahlonega Monday, Friday and Saturday at 6:30 a. m. Return same days at 6 p. m.

The many friends of Mr. Carl Crawford of Blue Ridge, Ga., who recently attended school at Dahlonega, will regret to learn that he leaves on the 14th for Oklahoma, City.

Mr. F. G. Thomson of Toledo, O., arrived in the city last Monday to look after his mining interests in the Standard and Consolidated Co's, being the first visit he has paid us in a long while. All glad to see him.

Joest pins  $\frac{1}{2}$  inches square are worth \$6.50 per 1,000 at Blue Ridge, Ga. If the railroad was completed to Dahlonega they would be worth that here too. Railroads make many things valuable that are worthless without them.

Do you want summer visitors come to Dahlonega? If so it will soon be time to get up a little purse for advertising purposes. You can't expect people to come unless they are told of this sections advantages, and it will take some money to do that.

Mr. John Hatfield has rented the large Consolidated Co's hotel, and opened it out to the public. This is one of the most desirable places in the city, in full view of the beautiful Blue Ridge mountains at which his guests can look till they grow tired.

All of our citizens who went below with stock for sale are meeting with success. They are getting good prices and selling out faster than usual. All down the country the pine woods are being cleaned up and the land put into cultivation causing a bigger demand for stock.

We noticed on Hall's Villa Register last Monday the name of Dr. T. A. Hix, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., in company with Messrs. Wm. George and W. A. Mangly from the same city. Dr. Hix is the inventor of the great gold saving machine you have heard so much about. All visited the mines soon after their arrival here.

We stated last week that Cadet Wadley, who was quarantined down at Mr. McKee's, slipped off home when notified that his father was at the point of death. The young men who gave us the information were mistaken. He wouldn't even come out of the lot until he got permission from the authorities and changed his clothing as directed by a physician. Really he had not been exposed to the small pox patient. We make this correction with great pleasure. We regret to learn however that his father died.

Col. W. P. Price visited Atlanta this week on business.

New subscribers and renewals received by nearly every mail. Thanks to all.

Mr. Meaders is speaking about buying and carrying off another drove of mules right at once.

Mrs. Tulson arrived in the city this week and joined her husband who has been here two or three weeks.

Yahoola district had a runaway wedding last Sunday. The contracting parties being Mr. Emory Ash and a daughter of Mr. Jim Grizzle.

The price of sweet potatoes have been reduced to 60 cents per bushel by the retail, placing them in reach of country editors for roasting purposes.

Those of our citizens running boarding houses are securing larger buildings, getting ready to accommodate any and all visitors who may wish to spend the season here this year.

Some of our citizens are sending their shoe mending to Atlanta where they can get it done much cheaper than in Dahlonega. Shoe makers here should take notice of this and not let it go away.

We have been asked several times when the new daily mail line would be started. In reply we will say that Col. Farrow wrote to a friend here the other day and stated that it might be a month or so.

The weather has been so rainy for the past week that almost all kinds of business had to be suspended. Even the merchants have been unable to sell any goods except those needed by the citizens of the town.

It is reported that Preacher Turner and his wife in Chestatee district, have separated again. When preachers and their wives can't get along it is very poor encouragement for young people to want to marry.

The weather man is giving us the amount of rain he left off last summer and fall, taking from three to four days each week to make up for the loss time, causing many people to have to spend much idle time.

Preachers, before making calls at residences should send in a notice several days previous, stating when they will be on hand, like the Chicago Portrait Co's men. Then ladies would have no excuse of being absent, and not have to stand out at the wood pile like one did the other day until prayer was over and the minister gone.

The small pox quarantine at Mr. J. H. McKee's has been raised. Mr. Cochran, after a light case, has recovered and all right again. And there is not a single case of the disease in Dahlonega now. Last year all of Mr. McKee's folks were vaccinated and none contracted it, showing that it does good to be vaccinated.

John Chatten's hearing for a new trial before Judge Newman, charged with breaking open Wier post-office in this county, has been postponed again. It may be that this case will be continued until young McDonald, who is serving out a sentence in the penitentiary for the same offense, expires in March. He is a witness against the defendant and refuses to testify now.

Court is in session at Dawsonville this week, being Judge Kimsey's second court since his last election. We hear of nothing of importance transacted to report to our readers from that place now. The town is full of people and much drinking as usual, but none have gotten tight enough thus far to rock the court house as was done many years ago, but it is believed by strangers if the drinking continues during the week like it was commenced for the first two or three there will be no blockade liquor left and Dawson county will be dry until another run can be made.

A permanent boom is bound to greet the people of Dahlonega this year.

Sheriff Davis is without a single guest. All the defendants arrested seem to have friends and make bond.

Another very interesting article will be found on our first side written by Dr. Howard concerning the resources of Lumpkin county.

Capt. Ingersoll, while out riding last Tuesday fell backwards out of his buckboard as his horses gave a sudden start but fortunately did not injure him.

Any one having a letter with a medal addressed to a Satterfield or Trafonia Lance will please return it to Dahlonega postoffice and receive reward. W. H. C. TATE, P. M.

Sheriff Davis went down to Dawsonville last week and arrested Omer Cochran, who is wanted in this county charged with misdemeanor—being one of the Mill Creek church disturbers.

John Austin is dead, or we suppose he is, because he told us several weeks ago that he would hand us a dollar the next day if he lived. He hasn't done it and must be gone by failing to come around, for he belongs to the church and can't afford to tell a lie.

At commencement of the N. G. A. College Mr. G. W. Harben of Dawson county, and Mr. W. T. Townsend of Pickens, will represent the Decora society, while Mr. N. W. Grant of Clarksville, and Mr. J. D. Gortatowsky of Albany, will represent the Phi Mu.

Messrs. J. F. Moore & Co. have purchased the entire stock of goods of the Union Store Co., and commenced taking stock today, and will do business at the Union Store stand until Mr. Moore can erect his brick store house where he has been doing business for years.

Prof. Stewart didn't go to Athens recently to electioneer for a job, as intimated by the Atlanta News' correspondent, but to attend the School Master's meeting, and to look after the interest of the Dahlonega college, and met with success by securing an additional sum of the Peabody fund of a few hundred dollars for the normal course.

It is still going the rounds among some here that the man who was picked up in Atlanta a few days ago that had lost his mind, was Dan Corn. No, no. It was Peter Duncan. Dan Corn left for the west from Lumpkin county with a case booked against him in the U. S. court some years ago, and died there, according to proof made to the court by his bondsmen. If Corn is dead he can't get back and if alive is not going to return with a case against him in the U. S. court.

Auraria Dots.

It is true we have been having some bad weather but our "hustlers" who go rain or shine never break their gate.

Our school has set Friday (tomorrow) afternoon for speeches and recitations, and also a general spelling match. We insist that all patrons and friends come out and see us. That is the only way that you can tell what we are doing.

Prof. Carl Schultz spent last Saturday night with us on his way to Flowery Branch, where he has accepted the position as principal of the high school at that place. Prof. Schultz was one of the most successful teachers in the county and we regret to see him leave.

It is sad to note that Mr. H. C. Hughes, who has been very low with consumption for the last six weeks, died last Sunday morning. Mr. Hughes was one of our most upright and substantial citizens, and the death of this worthy gentleman inflicts upon our section an irreparable loss. His bereaved family has our heart-felt sympathy.

Mining Notes.

A directors meeting of the Hix Amalgamating Process Co. was organized and officers elected last night. And they mean business. On account of the inclement weather the force out on Caverdore's Creek canal was reduced to about sixty-five hands last week.

Messrs. Sovoy, Tregent and Bruce are still moving along with their mining operations down at the Barlow, apparently satisfied with results.

Dr. Hix may purchase the tailings below the Crown Mountain mill and put up one of his gold saving machines on Tin Yard branch. He talks about it.

Twenty stamps of the Hand mill have been in operation for several days crushing quite a considerable amount of ore taken from the Benning. We understand that it is still the intention of the company to erect one or two new smelters, which we referred to a few weeks ago, on the property.

The different miners having leases on the Standard property, are still at work making the business profitable to them, taking out ore worth from eight to ten dollars per ton. They mill only the "pay stuff" is why it pays them. And to do this a man must understand enough about mining to tell what will pay and know how to assort or select it.

The president of the Briar Patch mine was expected down again this week in company with other gentlemen and likely reached the place by this time. As soon as the weather opens up so work can be pushed to an advantage, a large force of hands will be put to work cutting the canal and doing such improvement as is necessary to put the mine in operation.

The bed of Chestatee river being rich with gold proves that the hills and valleys of Lumpkin county are likewise. Look at the profitable mining being done by the dredge boats in this stream. On Nov. 10th the Ingersoll & Crisson boat was moved on Mr. M. M. London's property and up to the first of February cleaned up more than 3,000 pennyweights, at a cost of about $80 per month.

It can rain, sleet or snow and not have any effect on the operations at the pyrites mine in this county. The miners are deep under the ground and the weather doesn't interfere with them. The shaft work still continues both day and night without ceasing. As stated before in the spring, many more hands will be added and work begin more active than at any time heretofore. A big dam will be constructed across the Chestatee that will furnish all the power necessary to operate it to the best advantage. It will be a big enterprise, one of much importance to the residents of Lumpkin county and we are anxious to see the full intentions of the company carried out.

The partial clean up at Crown Mountain last week was very satisfactory, being unable to make a general clean up on account of the weather, notwithstanding this it was better than at any time heretofore. A big number of nuggets were found, both large and small, and coarse gold plentiful. Directly after the clean up was made samples of ore were taken from the different veins and cuts and the general average was much larger than was ever obtained before, proving that they grow richer as the mountain is penetrated, proving beyond any doubt that it is a valuable gold mine. All they need is plenty of water and this can be had when the pump is in working order, but it is too small for the great pressure and is out of order too much. It is like putting a two horse load on a one horse wagon. It seems to us like they will either have to get a stronger pump or install another one half way up the mountain to relieve the other of such a big strain. It has been under repair for several days but is now running again. No trouble about the mine.

Another School Heard From.

I wish to remind my committees that they can get nice little books and circulars, showing the best way to ornament our school grounds, and how to take care of trees, shrubs, &c., after they are planted, by addressing a letter to the Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass.

No Doubt About Her Religion.

A Chicago woman a few days ago returned five cents to the postmaster at that place with the following explanation: "I want to return some money which I owe you. Three years ago I sent a dollar bill to Sweden. I did not have much money, so I thought I would save something by wrapping the money in a newspaper instead of sending it in a letter. I did not think it was wrong then. But my conscience has troubled me many times since and as I am now a good Christian, I want to pay the 5 cents I owe."

Now if those who have been borrowing their neighbors' Neglect will quit it and send in a dollar for a years subscription we would have some faith in their religion and believe there was some chance for them, but as it is we have some doubts.

Negro Vaccinated Himself.

A negro man longed about in the wholesale drug store of Taylor, Riley & Lamar yesterday waiting to get an opportunity to some of the busy people who run that establishment. He saw near him a large box of what he mistook to be toothpicks. He took up one and examined it carefully. He decided to try it on his teeth to see whether or not he should buy a few. He found it worked pretty well, and as one of the attaches of the store passed him he asked.

"Boss whatever ax fer dese yere toothpicks?"

Then came the discovery that he had vaccinated himself in the mouth. The "toothpicks" were vaccine points. The negro had been dodging the physicians for a long time because he had a holy horror of being vaccinated, and he was scared out of his wits when he found that he had accidentally vaccinated himself.—Macon Telegraph.

Wood haulers using frames from 6 to 8 inches narrower than the space between the standards should take warning. A person lost his life in this county not long ago by the frame loaded with wood slipping to the lower side as the wagon ran up on a bank and turned over on him. By having your load of wood high and narrow doesn't deceive any one. Anybody can tell that it takes four or more just such loads to make a cord and you get $2.00 for a cord, when you pretend to sell it at $1.50.

A gentleman is corresponding with parties in Dahlonega now with a view of establishing a big tannery in this county. There is not a single industry of the kind in the county and hasn't been for years, but we see no reason why one wouldn't pay well.

Attention Young Men.

The state has established at Dahlonega the best educational plant in North Georgia. Tuition free and board is only $8 per month in the Dormitory. One Hundred Dollars will cover actual cost of college expenses for 9 months. A diploma from this state College is a high honor and stands for work, for scholarship, for character. The state wants to help you help yourself. An investment in brain power pays the best dividends. Will you not accept the state's offer?

The college holds the state championship in oratory.

For particulars as to course of study, expense equipment, etc., write to Jos. S. Stewart, President, Dahlonega, Ga.

Wants the Negroes to Love Him.

Last week Senator Hanna introduced a bill in congress providing for pensions for former slaves. This bill provides that ex-slaves over 70 years of age shall receive a bounty of $500 and a pension of $15 a month; those between 50 and 60 a bounty of $100 and a pension of $8 a month; those under 50 years shall be entitled to receive $4 per month until they are 50 years old, when they shall receive $8 per month.

The Connecting Link.

Advertising is the link that connects business with success, and all the big merchants of this country are well aware of this fact. Why cannot our smaller merchants see through the advantages of continually advertising?—Titusville (Fla.) Advocate.

A veteran of the Spanish War recently applied to the Secretary of the Interior a case in which he claimed a pension on account of corns that he contracted by wearing army shoes. The department, after an exhaustive course of reasoning, comes to the conclusion that corns are not a pensionable disability. The decision says: "Corns are inconvenient, but are seldom incapacitating, and when they are, the remedy is simple and within easy reach of everyone. The soldier's patriotism ought not to terminate with his military service. It should prompt him to go to a chiropodist rather than to the pension bureau."

There are thirty-two miles of electric wires in the new white house, says the Washington correspondent of the New York World. They transmit current to every nook and corner of the building for many purposes, and, with their connections, make up what is pronounced the most perfect electrical system in the United States. Experts say there is none to compare with it in intricacy or exactness.

The North Georgia Electric Co., has received a new motor freight car, which is to be used in hauling freight of the company, and in conveying the gravel for the city and road along the line of the track. It arrived last Thursday, and has already been installed in to service. It has the capacity for hauling heavy freight and gravel.

State Geologist Yeates thinks there is a sulphur mine in Clayton county.

PROCESS.

Craig: By order of the Court, you are hereby notified to be and appear at the next term of said Court, to be held on the 3rd Monday in April next, either personally or by attorney, to answer the complaint of Mrs. B. A. Craig in an action for total divorce. In default of said appearance the Court will proceed as to justice shall appear. Witness the Hon. J. B. Edick, Judge of said Court. This the 30th day of December, 1902.

CITATION.

Georgia, Lumpkin County.
John L. Seabolt has applied for ex-emption of personality and setting apart an valuation of homestead, and I will pass upon the same at 10 o'clock on the 10th day of February, 1903, at my office. This January 20th, 1903.
John H. Hays, Ordinary.

A Repeater.

"That boy will be the death of me some day," declared the head of the family, according to the Detroit Free Press. "I'm sure I don't know where he gets all his impudence and self-assurance, surely not from me. He returned home from college the other day to spend the holidays, as I supposed, and, entering my office, he threw his hat on the floor, selected an easy chair, put his feet on my desk, lit a cigarette, inhaled a few puffs, and then, turning languidly to me, he drawled:

"Say, dad, do you remember the time when you were sent home from college?"

I did. There was no use denying it, for one day in a burst of confidence I had told him some of my escapades as a boy, and lived to regret that I had been so indiscreet.

"Well," said he, "history has repeated itself."

"What do you mean, you young scallywag?" I roared.

"Oh," said he, easily, "I've been sent home, too. Astonishing, isn't it, dad, how such things will run in a family?"

The engineers who have prepared plans for the great sea wall that is to be built at Galveston, to protect the city from the waves of the gulf during storms, have made a report. The wall is to be three miles in length, and will be made of concrete. The cost of the wall proper will be $2,294,755, and that of filling in and grading will be $2,210,000 additional. The wall will stand seventeen feet above mean low water, and it is believed the city will be afforded perfect protection by it. The maximum high water mark during the great storm and flood of 1900 was 15 feet, highest mark ever recorded.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve Cure Me.

There is nothing more necessary to health than sleep and rest. If these are denied you if you rise in the morning more tired than when you went to bed, there is an affection of the nerves plainly present. If your heart is weak, or there is an inherited tendency in that direction, your weakened nerves will soon affect your heart's action as to lying on serious, chronic trouble. Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure is a nerve tonic, which quickens the nerve, so that sleep may come, and it quickly restores the weakened nerves to health and strength. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is a great blood and heart tonic which regulates the action of the heart, enriches the blood and improves the circulation.

"Some time ago I was suffering severely with heart trouble. At times my heart would seem to stop beating and at others it would beat loudly and very fast. Three to four hours sleep each night in ten months was all I could get. One week in last September I never closed my eyes. I got Dr. Miles' Nerve and Heart Cure at a drug store in Lawrenceburg, after spending $2000 in medicines and doctors in Louisville, Shelbyville, Frankfort, Cincinnati and Lawrenceburg, and in three days have derived more benefit from the use of your remedies than I got from all the doctors and their medicines. I think everybody ought to know of the marvelous power contained in your remedies."—W. H. HUGHES, Fox Creek, Ky.

T. S. Littlefield, Gen. Man.

CANDLER PRESIDENT.

Is Placed at the Head of the Etowah Gold Mining and Milling Co.

The Etowah Gold Mining and Milling Co., is the name of the organization now headed by Ex-Gov. Allen D. Candler, which is capitalized at $1,000,000, and which is to operate the Lilly properties on the Etowah river in Lumpkin county. Among the other Gainesville people interested in the enterprise is Mr. Z. T. Castleberry, president of the First National bank; Mr. H. D. Jaquish, an experienced and successful mining man, who has operated several large properties very successfully in Hall and Lumpkin counties, as well as in the west; Mr. T. M. Kiser, formerly of New York, but now of this city.

The property controlled by this company is in the heart of the richest gold belt in this section, and is in close proximity to where the United States formerly operated a large mint up to the sixties, which, by the way, was the second mint ever established, and where so much of the precious metal was turned out.

It consists of sixteen mining claims, rich in gold producing ore, with a sufficient amount of water power, and to spare, to develop it at small cost. It is the purpose of the company to erect two dams and a reservoir on the property at an early date, and to conduct the work in a systematic and up-to-date manner. A large force of hands will be employed, and the operation of the mine upon so large a scale will be of much benefit to this section.

Governor Candler, who heads the company, is a man of national reputation, and, having been reared near the property, knows its value and has long wished to see the precious veins of yellow, lying just beneath the surface, transformed into the "coin of the realm." Mr. Castleberry, who is to be a director of the company, also formerly resided in Lumpkin, and knows what he is doing in his efforts to develop this rich mineral belt. Mr. Jaquish is a most successful mining man. Every proposition he has tackled has yielded handsome returns, and the people have confidence in his ability to work wonders with the present enterprise. He is to be general manager of the company, which is sufficient evidence of its success.

As stated above, the capital stock of the company is to be $1,000,000, in shares of $1.00 each, non-assessable. Mr. Jaquish left Monday afternoon for New York, where he goes to complete the arrangements for the company to begin operations, and upon his return active work will begin. A number of Northerners and Eastern men will also be associated with the company.—Gainesville News.

Snakes in Cabbage.

There has been something said and written about the cabbage snakes, but we paid no special attention to it until Monday when Mr. G. J. Moyers showed us a snake he found in a cabbage head; he said he found two. The cabbage head was frozen but they were moving about to heat the world. They are said to be very poisonous, and if cooked with the cabbage and eaten are likely to cause death. We advise our readers to examine closely before cooking. No more cabbage for us.—Summerville News.

Georgia Young Men's Christian Association.

ATLANTA, GA., Feb. 7th, 1903.

TO THE FRIENDS OF YOUNG MEN:
The Twenty-fourth State Convention of the Associations of Georgia will be held at Columbus, Feb. 21-24, 1903, beginning with a banquet Saturday night, and closing with gymnasium exhibition the following Tuesday night. The General and Assistant Secretaries and Physical Directors will hold their Annual Conference the day following the Convention.

As representation is not limited, each Association should send a large delegation of its very best men. Care should be taken that the Management and Committee force be well represented, and that Associations send men from all departments of service. Colleges should send students from every class, and, if possible, members of the Faculties. Young men from small towns and institutions of learnings, having no Association, will be warmly welcomed. Their credentials must be certified by their pastors, and names sent in by Feb. 18th.

Every delegate must be provided with a Credential, properly certified, which should be presented, on arrival, to the Credential Committee, which will be in session at St. Luke's M. E. Church.

The hospitable people of Columbus will entertain the Convention. The names of all delegates must be sent to Mr. W. C. Lowe, of the Columbus Association, on or before Feb. 18th, to insure entertainment. Do not fail to attend to this matter without delay. For those desiring to entertain themselves, special rates will be arranged for at the hotels.

Arrangements have been made with the railroads for reduced rates on the following conditions: 1st. Each person desiring to avail himself of the reduced rate must purchase a first-class ticket (either limited or unlimited) to the place of meeting, at the regular tariff rate, and at the same time procure from a Ticket Agent a certificate of the standard form. If a through ticket cannot be procured at the starting point, the person should purchase to the most convenient point at which such tickets can be obtained, and there re-purchase through to the place of meeting, procuring a standard certificate from each agent from whom a ticket is purchased.

2d. It is absolutely necessary that certificates be procured indicating that full fare has been paid for going passage and the route for which ticket or tickets for the return journey should be sold. No refund of fare can be expected because of failure to secure such certificates.

3d. Tickets for the return journey will be sold at one-third the first-class fare plus 25 cents only to persons holding certificates of the standard form, which will be signed by Mr. J. M. Britt, Chairman Credential Committee, and vided by Mr. W. H. Young, at the Union Ticket office.

Quite a lot of strong speakers from various cities have been secured to address the association. After all the midnight study of great scientists to discover a cure for drunkenness, almost without success, a simple and effective remedy which is almost costless has been discovered. If any person addicted to excessive drinking will eat all the tomatoes he can three times a day, in one month he cannot bear to drink any kind of alcoholic stimulants.—Exchange.

Public Roads.

ED. NUGGET:

The public roads leading to Dahlonega are in such condition that citizens living near-by dread to travel them, and often will do without merchandise rather than risk stock and vehicles on them, thereby losing trade to the town and country both.

Is there not a way to better this?

In apportioning the hands to work the roads leading out of Dahlonega for this year the commissioners find it hard to find enough hands to do the work even in the worst places and it is impossible to get enough of them to do more than commonplace repairs.

The citizens of Dahlonega are vitally interested in having good roads, the rural population think the burden too hard on them where the country citizens to the road is sparsely settled; hence, they cannot in justice to their families, spare enough time to do more than hit the high places.

Some of the hands in this district have to go as far as six miles to do road duty, this is positively burdensome.

The different roads have been given their prorata of hands and below I give you the number for each road, which you can see at a glance is totally inadequate.

Number of hands for each road: Cooper's gap 2 hands, Wimpy mill and Yahoola eight, Cleveland seven, Bearden's bridge four, Crooked creek eight.

It can be readily seen that none of the roads have enough hands.

I would suggest that ten or fifteen public spirited citizen of Dahlonega employ one hand each and add them to the force already appointed to the road, let the combined force ridge it up in the center, widen it where needed and give it one good working on an intelligent plan. This, in my opinion, would insure fairly good roads for several years without being burdensome on those having to scuffle for their daily bread.

Let some one start this plan or a better one and get ready to do the work when the weather breaks.

It will be a boon to the community and a pass port to a better world or a better conscience for those engaged in it.

R. W. WALKER.

Mr. J. J. Welder planted last season forty acres in sugar-cane near Victoria, Texas. They yielded 250 gallons of molasses per acre, which sold at thirty-five cents a gallon. The total sales amounted to $8,200. The operating expenses were $1200, leaving a net gain of $50 an acre.

The School and its Banner.

On last Friday, at 3 o'clock in the presence of the pupils, parents and visitors, the beautiful flag, donated by the Youth's Companion of Boston, was presented to Ashley school, No. 121 by Col. Price President of the Board of Education, who in delivering it, also gave an interesting talk on what was meant by the presentation. This school has done much for the neighborhood, and the patrons have shown themselves entitled to a good school. From a weak and unimportant school it has grown under the management of Prof. Paul Abbott to a position in the front ranks of our country schools. At the conclusion of his address, Col. Price paid a tribute to Capt. James Ashley, who paid $100 towards erecting the school house, which is now well supplied with seats, paid for by the patrons and pupils, but it needs much of school furniture, which will likely be bought this year.

A couple of loads of young pork carried to Montrie a short while ago brought him $160, and the raising of the shoats had cost him practically nothing. He has also noted that cattle can be raised at considerable profit. He expects the Bermuda to furnish a summer pasture and burr clover on the same ground to furnish winter pasture.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published. No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformant, sciatic, neuralgia, goat, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "sure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how mother was cured. I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of sense—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "economically ill" who are wearied and discouraged with "doctoring" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experience. Surely, if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, anyway, and prove for yourself these claims I make. Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and 2 will mail you this wonderful story. ## Local News.

Maj. Tilsen has contracted with the Consolidated Co. for 21 electric lights for the residence he occupies.

Mrs. Fabe Sullins of this county recently gave the correct puzzle in Shawes Magazine and was given a building lot at Sable, Mich., valued at $1,000.

It might be well enough to state to Billie Signal that it is much better for a lady to have a cotton apron of her own than to be wearing a bustle belonging to some one else.

Mr. J. H. Moore has worked on his old store house until it is as convenient and looks as well as any in town. And besides this he is doing a good business and keeps increasing his stock all the time.

J. F. Moore & Co. are now located at the Union Store stand in the Hall block ready to wait on their customers. The consolidation of the two stocks of goods given them by far the largest and best assortment kept this side of Gainesville.

Col. Jones, president of the Cavenders Creek Mining Co., returned a few days ago and was in the city a short while last Friday. The Colonel is an old miner of many years experience and thoroughly understands his business. This coupled with the vim and energy he possesses is bound to win for the company success.

One of the visitors to Dahlonega last week from Toledo visited the Nugget office just before he departed, saying that he wanted to take the Nugget and keep posted about Dahlonega as it was going to boom. This is very encouraging, for the gentleman is a stockholder in both the Standard and Consolidated mines and knows what he is talking about. We wish all these mining enterprises success.

Last Saturday an old German gentleman passed through Dahlonega on his way to Dawsonville. He could get nothing stimulating to drink causing him to complain that it was a very dry mining town and he didn't stay long. But when he struck Dawsonville and found it had all been used up during court week will cause him to believe the whole country is dry, and cause him to have to resort to the use of some substitute.

The approaching state convention of the Y. M. C. A. which will be held in Columbus, Ga., 21, to 24, will be a notable gathering. Prominent Y. M. C. A. members from all parts of the state and from other states will be in attendance, and the occasion will be an interesting one to all Y. M. C. A. workers. Some of the best speakers in the country are on the program for addresses, and those who attend the sessions of the convention will be well repaid.

Little Billie Signal or Apple Jack, as he calls himself, had another severe attack of political bellyache last week. These attacks have been frequent since sheriff Davis quit giving him any medicine. But it is unnecessary to quarantine the Signal office as not enough persons visit it to spread the disease if it was the most contagious on record, and besides no one can contract it from little Apple Jack, there not being enough substance about him to produce a scale of manhood half as large as a pin head. This little colt is also troubled with the bots, and the only relief for him is to either eat a few bites of meat or produce intoxication by sitting on a rotten apple. They commenced gnawing on him not long ago and not having either remedy in his house sent to a certain merchant for fifty cents worth of bacon on a credit, which was refused, causing the little thing to set up a terrible howl until he could procure an apple and apply the poultice to the proper place. So when he takes these spells you may know that he either has the bots or political bellyache and is out of both meat and rotten apples.

Fresh garden seeds at Prices.

Lieut. Smith Harris left Michigan for Manilla yesterday.

Keep your eye on Dahlonega and watch her prosper this year.

The Gaddistown mail started out from Dahlonega last Friday morning with John Green, col., as carrier.

Young Dick McDonald's sentence in the U. S. Federal prison for breaking into Wier postoffice in this county, expires in a few days and sheriff Davis will go down and bring him back to answer to the charge of burglary in Lumpkin Superior Court. It is the same transaction, the office being in the store of Mr. John Bennett where both the state and United States laws were violated.

Did you ever see a paper without an editor? There is one in Dahlonega called the Signal. Little Broaches Billy tries to act in this capacity but is so sorry and has such little influence that he is ashamed to put his name in print, but instead of this calls himself "Apple Jack," a very appropriate name. He tried to run a Populist paper in his own name at Cleveland, Ga., a few years ago, but got no patronage and perished out and had to come back and be cared for by his good old father. The best thing for him to do would be to usenore his head and swap it for a dead male chintz, and then it would be chented and kill the reputation of the bug family.

The amount of wild land in this county has shrunk considerably in a year. The number of acres returned in Lumpkin in 1901 is 23,086, and in 1902, 16,380, being a decrease of 6,706 acres. This fall off can be explained a few words. Most of this unreturned wild last year was purchased by parties at different public sales for non payment of taxes, not being returned even, and when the supreme court decided that the sale was not legal because the advertisement didn't say "unreturned" wild lands, the parties purchasing them had no titles to the property and have decided to let another sale take place in accordance with this decision.

The text Little Billie Apple Jack published for the Baptist minister last week didn't have much effect on him in the way of quenching his thirst for liquor. As soon as his paper was off he went out trying to get a quart of corn juice so as to give another free out door entertainment we suppose. He had better be careful, for the next time he comes before Mayor Baker for scaring his wife off from home after dark and shoving her things out of the house he may not let him pay a deserved indebted $25 fine with $3 and the rest in tears and boo hoes in open court, like he had received another whipping from Good Beck.

On Thursday night of last week the restaurant and store of Mr. John Hatfield was entered by a couple of thieves that were in search of money. When Mr. Hatfield moved his family to the new hotel he removed the electric lights in the hall and none was burning in the front porch that night. So when the night watch was found in another part of town they forced the hall door open and then with a key made their way into the store and to the money drawer, where they found nothing but a small amount of coppers. These were pocketed, and forgetting a couple of Hall's Villa keys on the counter near by, left out without molesting any thing else, if so it has not yet been discovered. The Hall's Villa keys didn't fit any of the doors. The one that did was carried away. Ferman Carroll who worked at Hall's Villa, was arrested, tried bound over and committed to jail in default of a hundred dollar bond. Ferman had quite a number of coppers and gave a negro girl over 25. He gave two persons names from whom he said he got them, but it seems that was a mistake as they hadn't given him any.

Mr. D. L. Pitner, after spending so no time in the mountains has returned to Atlanta.

Wanted, by John H. Moore, a lot of best cattle for which a good price will be paid.

Is any one else needing any visiting cards printed? If so just let them call at the Nugget office.

There was to have been an all day singing up at Yahoola last Sunday but the weather drowned it out.

We have plenty of mumps, some measles but are glad to say that there is not a single case of small pox in Dahlonega or Lumpkin county.

We understand that it is the intention of the Methodists, Baptists and Presbyterians of this place to secure a tent and hold a series of union meetings in April.

Col. Joe Underwood and Capt. Asbury of White county, came down on business last Monday and spent the night at Hall's Villa. They have nothing new to report from their section.

Messrs. G. T. Rowe, W. T. Townsend and J. R. Berry will leave for Columbus tomorrow to represent the Young Mens Christian Association of this place in the state convention.

Maj. Tilsen will lecture in college chapel tonight for the benefit of Y. M. C. A. A small admission fee will be charged. The people of the town as well as the student body are invited to attend.

The present price of green apples should induce all our citizens owning land to plant out orchards that will produce good fine fruit. Apples not much larger than walnuts retail at five cents a dozen.

The freight wagons from Dahlonega to Gainesville, have recently advanced the price to 40 cents per hundred for hauling, and they certainly earn their money such weather as we have had this winter.

Prof. Daniel, principal of Shoal Creek School, gave us a pleasant call last Saturday afternoon, in company with another gentleman of White county whose name we have forgotten. His school is in a flourishing condition.

The Gainesville mail was water bound at the small creek this side of Yellow creek in Hall county last Monday for several hours and didn't reach Dahlonega until 11 o'clock that night, being the first occurrence of the kind in several years. The three passengers had to stop over on the way.

It is rumored that Prof. Martin has other business in view and will not teach in the public school here longer than the present term. If it is his intention we regret it very much for Prof. Martin is an excellent teacher and a perfect gentleman and it will be a hard matter to get any one to fill the position as well as he does.

Prof. Pratt of the pyrites mine, is determined to have a railroad to his operations. If he does not build one from London he has arrangements made with the Southern to build the line and connect it with its road at some convenient point, so we are reliably informed. So Lumpkin county has two chances for a railroad.

For some time we have been connected with Gainesville by wire and the day is not far distant when the two places will be linked together by rail and the electric cars running through the valleys and over the hills loaded down with passengers and all kinds of traffic, causing prosperity to spread throughout the whole country.

The most rain we have had in many months fell last Monday, swelling the streams until those having no bridges over them could not be crossed. It was very warm and thunder and lightning like summer time. That night it cleared off and turned cold enough for the wind clouds to drop us snow occasionally. And Tuesday morning the thermometer registered at 14.

Senator McClure of Dawson county visited Dahlonega last Saturday.

If you need any large official envelopes printed, we have them and can do the work.

The cheapest type writer paper we have is 10 cents a pad for one hundred sheets 8 1/2 x 11. Does this suit you? If so drop in to see us.

Last Saturday was St. Valentine's day and a good deal of money was spent here by the young people in sending each other words of love in verses.

Gen. Hardin of Kentucky, who has been here for several weeks, is so delighted with the beautiful mountain scenery that he takes a stroll nearly every day.

Judge Huff will go down to Atlanta next week and bring back the checks for the pensioners of Lumpkin county, which are to be paid to him next Wednesday.

Do you wish to buy some valuable land in Lumpkin county? If so examine an advertisement elsewhere in this issue of Dr. Jones, and Messrs. Bohan and Floyd.

A Sunday mail is the next new thing on the program for Dahlonega. It will give us the news fresher and be a great convenience to any one having to come from or go to Gainesville on Sunday, which is often the case.

Judge Kinsey stopped long enough in Dahlonega on his return from Dawson Superior Court last Saturday to eat dinner and grant an amendment to the charter of the Etowah Gold Mining Co., heretofore known as the Betz Mine near Auraria.

The man that sold meal here the other day made from rotten corn and the rakeings from the bottom of the crib should be prosecuted. The law prevents farmers from being swindled by guano dealers of an inferior quality and consumers of meal should be done likewise.

Several of our citizens will likely bid on the new daily line from here to Gainesville, and they ought to make a bid big enough to realize something for the work. The government has plenty of money to pay for such mail service and the people are to blame for doing the work for nothing.

Hon. Carter Tate's garden seeds have been arriving at the post office here for several days, giving the postmaster and his assistants something to do. We notice that Mr. Tom Bell of Gainesville wants to get Mr. Tate's job to distribute the seeds for the ninth district. Do you reckon he will make it?

Under the present system of working the roads in this county it can't be expected for those in the town district outside of the corporate limits to be put in anything like good condition. There being only 30 hands to perform the duty as will be seen by Mr. Walkers letter in this issue. He is one of the commissioners. The best way to get good roads is to work them by taxation.

Those of our citizens wishing to advertise the town for the purpose of getting summer visitors should not wait a day longer, but begin now and get up a purse for the purpose. We own no hotel nor keep any boarding house or store but will give $10.00 worth of advertising space in the Nugget in order to open the ball, feeling confident that what helps others will help us. Who will be next to contribute something?

Our attorneys who attended Dawson Superior Court last week report a good deal of business disposed of, the court having adjourned on Friday several hours after night. The most important criminal case was that of Etna Parks for shooting Charlie Crawford. Friday and a portion of Friday night were consumed in trying this case. A verdict of acquittal was returned as the jury believed defendant was justifiable. Cois. Lilly and Baker of Dahlonega represented the defendant.

W. P. Price has just received a new supply of dress goods and notions.

The Etijay mail was water bound and failed to reach Dahlonega last Tuesday.

Mr. M. J. Williams has sub contracted the Gaddistown mail to Mr. Joe Ricketts, who took charge of the same yesterday.

In a few days a white man's land in Lumpkin county will be sold in Atlanta by Rucker, the negro collector of Georgia.

At J. F. Moore and Co's you can get 500 yards of dragon for 5 cents and Keers and Clarks cotton for two cents a spool of 200 yards.

Flour and other groceries are getting scarce in Dahlonega on account of teamsters being unable to supply the demand, caused by rainy, cold weather and very bad roads.

The damages and deaths caused by Mondays storms and blizzards all over the south is certainly very distressing. The wind was strong here for a while but fortunately did no damage.

Some are wondering why Mr. Carter Edmonson was in such a hurry to leave Dahlonega the other day. It is said that when the vehicle in which he was riding broke down near Gainesville he jumped on one of the horses and lit out to strike the train. Rumor has it that it was a letter he received before departing.

Auraria Dots.

Auraria lacks a good deal of being on a stand still. Very frequently we can see some of the former citizens, after traveling for a long time, back shaking a hearty hand of welcome with their old friends.

Mr. Andrew Deadman came in last week from the West. He was reared in our section but has been traveling in the Rocky Mountain states for twenty four years. Mr. Deadman says he will spend the rest of his days here.

Mr. Arnold who is superintendant of the Betz mines was called to his home in Philadelphia last week where his father was very seriously ill.

The interest that is manifested in our mines is still increasing. A large company of stockholders is coming the latter part of this week from the North West with a view of looking over the Briar Patch stock.

Some of our people attended the reception given by the Royal Non fraternity on the fourteenth instant at the Villa in Dahlonega. It was in every respect an elegant and entertaining affair to all who were present.

We wonder if we could not hear from the progress of other places in the country? It seems that some of the readers out of the several communities in the country would let us hear from them once and a while. Wake up friends and let us know what you are doing.

It is a pleasure to say that all of our pupils were either prepared with a speech or recitation on last Friday. The interest that is manifested seems to be better than it has been in a long time.

Mining Notes.

Messrs. Thomas and Garrett, who are mining down at the Ivey, are making it profitable business. From 22 two-horse wagon loads of ore they cleaned up 115 penny-weights last week. The two do the work themselves and have no one to divide the profits with.

Notwithstanding the visitation of freshets and blizzards since our last issue the Crown Mountain pump has been getting in pretty good time, throwing a stream up to the top of the mountain sufficient for all purposes, and the plates at the mill are beginning to show up fine again. Mill frozen up as we go to press.

By reference to our first page you will find an interesting article copied from the Gainesville News concerning the organization of a new gold mining company with ex-Gov. A. D. Candler, of that city as its head, preparing to begin work on a large scale in Lumpkin county.

Last week Rev. C. M. Ferguson brought in some nice samples of kaeline which he found on his property a few miles above Dahlonega. This was taken out about five feet below the surface from a two foot vein. The samples were large and very pretty. Just think what valuable minerals Lumpkin county possesses.

It is the intention of Mr. Ricketts to commence the new dredge boat for Messrs. Ingersoll and Crisson next Monday. It would have been begun several weeks ago but a delay was caused by a disappointment in getting the lumber. Besides this, the weather has not been very favorable for boat building.

We would suggest to miners now expecting to erect mills to put in small stamps of about 500 pounds. They have given better satisfaction than the great heavy ones. When the large ones drop over four or five inches they burst the dies. The small ones do not give this trouble and can be kept in repair much easier and at less expense.

The Consolidated Co. has been running from 20 to 40 stamps of its big mill crushing the large amount of ore taken from the Benning for about two weeks, and we learn that the results are very satisfactory. When some of the Hix machines are installed still better results are expected, as it is claimed by Mr. Hix that practically all the gold can be saved by his method of treating it.

One of the fine nuggets recently taken from the Crown Mountain mine, has found its way to the state geologist. This is what the Atlanta News says about it: "State Geologist W. S. Yeates this morning received a very handsome nugget of gold from the Crown Mountain mine, near Dahlonega and pronounces it the finest specimen of free gold and quartz that has been received at the office this year."

Mr. Maxwell started to El Ora, Mexico, this week to examine a smelter located there by the United States Smelting Co. It is claimed that one of these smelters at El Ora earns the company half a million dollars a year where a large plant of all kinds of machinery costing this amount, failed. Mr. Maxwell is sent by the Dahlonega Consolidated Co., and if the ore is about the same as ours here and the smelter does the work represented one or more will be installed on their property at Dahlonega.

The work at Cavender's Creek mine is moving along as fast as possible, unable to get in full time on account of the inclement weather. The water in one prong of the ditch, taking in the Ens Anderson creek, is now on, and the other canals are receiving the "undivided" attention of the men with picks and shovels. The number of miles cut on all the ditches is about five. On the 10th they paid out over two thousand dollars in cash besides what the men had traded up, in a month. They have constructed all the ditch except about a mile.

An Impressive Lesson.

It happened on a sleeping car, where so many amusing and unusual things happen, says the Chicago Post.

The boy had been tucked snugly away in his berth early, and his father had repaired to the smoking room. But an aggressive evangelist, who felt it his duty to convert the world, was occupying a seat next to the boy's section, and when the porter came to make up that berth the evangelist saw a chance.

"Do you belong to the church?" he asked.

"No, sah," was the reply of the porter.

"Well you ought to join it?"

"I spec' so, boss."

"Yes, every one ought to join the church—some church. Religion is the mainstay of the world."

There was more to the same effect in a declamatory tone that was very penetrating, and finally the evangelist ended up with, "Can't I prevail on you to join the church?"

"I don't believe so, boss."

"If you do, God will make you good and take care of you, even if you are black."

Then the boy's head suddenly appeared between the curtains of his berth, and the boy spoke.

"I des if you don't shut up and go to sleep," he said. "God won't spend no time in looking after you."

The evangelist was speechless. The chorus of laughter that followed this outburst was too much even for him.

Her Impassioned Call.

Not long ago, says the Chicago News, a popular young actress of Paris received the visit of an able burglar in evening dress, who suddenly appeared in her rooms on the Boulevard de Port Royal without knocking at her door or being announced by her servant. The actress was prepared to retire for the night when she heard strange noises in her drawing room. Going in there she found herself face to face with a tall dark man in evening dress and soft slippers, who appeared to be about 40 years old. As the actress entered the stranger dropped on one knee and made a declaration of love. He said that he had watched her on the stage with admiration, that he had tried to seduce her at the theater and having failed to do so had resolved to enter her residence, even at the risk of being taken for a burglar. The actress was much annoyed, but believing the man's story allowed him to go away without raising any alarm. The stranger disappeared quickly when the door was opened for him and the actress subsequently found that before she had heard his footsteps in her salon he had broken open her Louis Quinze table there and abstracted from the drawers all her money and some jewels.

The New Arithmetic.

Harold has two rabbits and James has a black and tan dog. The dog being put into the yard with the rabbits—But of course you know there was only one left.

Three boys furnish the lemons, sugar and water to make a quart of lemonade and agree to divide it even up. James drinks first and passes the pitcher to John, and John—well, John didn't find any left. How many lemons did John and Peter call James?

A plumper charges an iceman with forty-five minutes' work at 50 cents an hour, and the iceman is short thirty-two pounds of ice at 75 cents a hundred. Who is ahead of the game and how much?

There are forty yards of carpet to be beaten, and Henry beats one-fourth of a yard per day and then gets the backache. At that rate how long will he be at the job and how many backaches will he have?

Brains in Farming.

Why is that so many bales go in exchange for Northern bales of bacon, almost as white as the cotton, while grits and cornbread and sweet potatoes and coffee chase one another in unbroken succession a thousand times a year across the farmers' plate, in a land where vegetables and poultry and dairy products and fruit are as easily grown as in any country on the globe? Why not reserve one-half the wide cotton field, growing poorer every year under the exhaustive, sun-burning system, raise velvet beans and peas and crabgrass hay and pumpkins, and make from a milking breed 400 pound per year per cow of rich, golden butter, what is more important, buttermilk enough to make fever in the family a perpetual outlaw? A cow and a garden will keep starvation a long way off.

The eggs will colico the family. On a good half-acre can be grown 100, yes, 150 bushel of sweet potatoes, and with butter on—observe the butter—they are as good as bread. Let the cow run on one half the forty acres if you are not prepared to cultivate it. But double up, at all hazards double up, and keep your work close up to you.—Florida Times Union.

A Big Pecan Grove.

What is said to be the largest grove of pecan trees in the world is near Mount Pleasant in Charleston county, South Carolina. Its 500 acres of land contain 10,000 trees. Its cultivation was begun ten years ago by Mr. John S. Horbeck, and through systematic selection treatment he has a fruit-bearing tract of a value that will steadily increase. The trees are just beginning to bear a large return, and every year their production will increase until they reach full fruition, at the age of fifty years. A full-grown pecan tree will produce from six to ten barrels of nuts. The local market takes up all Mr. Horbeck can furnish now, but shipments will begin in large quantities as the trees develop.

Mr. D. A. Durham, of near Hoy's station, on his way to Marietta Monday morning, was stopped by an excited lady at a house, by an urgent appeal: "Please come in the house, my dog has his head in the churn and I can't get him out?" Mr. Durham went into the house and the dog was rolling all over the house with the churn. He caught hold of the dog's hind legs and the lady the churn and there was a steady pull but the dog was too tightly fastened to budge, and he would soon pull the dog's head off at that rate; so he commenced rubbing down the rolls of skin on the dog's neck and soon extricated the dog's head from the churn. It was a laughable scene, but the lady had to do some churning that day and she couldn't do it with a dog's head.—Journal.

Mr. Bennett Explains.

EDITOR NUGGET:

DEAR SIR. In reply to an article in your paper, stating I was found guilty of selling whiskey in Hall county at last term of court, I proved by reliable evidence I was at home on June 14th, 1902, the time the selling should have been done.

Two of the states witnesses and another reliable witness stated that they bought whiskey from the man that day and positively I was not the man.

Mr. Charters and one witness told the jury I was guilty and they so found.

I do not know who sold the whisky, but I do know who paid for it. Mr. Charters is a good friend of mine and I can say for him he fills the bill as a states prosecutor.

Respectfully,

J. F. BENNETT.

Dr. Miles' Nerve is a specific for nervous disorders. It removes the cause and effects a speedy and permanent cure. "I feel it is my duty to let you know that your medicines have cured my little girl of nine, of spasms. She commenced having them at the age of three. Our family doctor said she would outgrow them but she did not. We took her to another physician who said her trouble was epileptic fits in a mild form. He did her no good either. She was so nervous she could hardly walk. As I had already used Dr. Miles' Nerve and found it a good remedy for myself I commenced giving it to my child. I gave her in all ten bottles of the Nerve and one of the Blood Purifier. That was over two years ago and she has not had an attack since we commenced the treatment. She is no longer troubled with nervousness and we consider her permanently cured. I enclose her picture. My mother-in-law had her reason and was insane for three months from the effects of LaGrippe. Six bottles of Dr. Miles' Nerve cured her. My sister has also taken it for sick headache with good results. We all thank you very much for your good medicines and kind advice. I don't think there is any other medicine but so good. I send my daughter's photograph so that you may see what a sweet little girl lives out in Arkansas. Mrs. HANNA BAKER, Springdale, Ark.

Gainesville Street and Other Railroads.

[BY DR. N. F. HOWARD.]

In a recent issue of the Gainesville News the statement was made in substance, that the people will wonder how they ever got along without a street railroad before. All rejoice that the railroad has at last got into the city.

We ask, who should have the credit of this enterprise?

Answer, Gen. Warner and his company.

I am glad to hear that the Gainesville people rejoice over the success of the railroad and the electric lights and trust now that they will all favor railroads for other cities. I trust the Gainesville people will now favor the Dahlonega railroad. However, I hear that four-fifths of the people of that city are opposed to the road, and two or more of its citizens, who were brought up and perhaps born in Lumpkin county, are the most bitter opponents to the success of the road. We trust however, when General Warner and his company get to Dahlonega with the R. R. all will rejoice with us in the result. We are in favor of the success of building of railroads with other enterprises throughout the country. Who do you think deserves much of the praise in a large sense, of inaugurating of the building of the Air-Line railroad and causing it to be built by Gainesville? The answer is this: Two men who now live in Dahlonega. Their names are Col. W. P. Price and Dr. N. F. Howard.

This is an explanation to what has been stated: In the session of 1895-1896, of which I was a member, it was agreed upon by a number of the members to prepare and introduce a bill granting state aid for the roads from Macon to Brunswick, and the Air-Line from Atlanta to Gainesville to the South Carolina line, and for the Macon and Augusta railroad. Dr. N. F. Howard introduced the bill for the Air-Line, Mr. Moughon for the Brunswick road and Mr. Pottle for the Macon and Augusta road. Two of these bills were passed by the legislature. Gov. Jenkins approved the Macon and Brunswick bills, giving state aid of ten thousand dollars per mile, but the governor vetoed the Atlanta Air-Line railroad bill, giving as a reason that there was not a mile of the railroad built.

This was a most flimsy and unnatural reason that Gov. Jenkins gave. Here is a section of North Georgia, nearly one hundred miles square pierced by no railroad, and when a charter was issued to receive state aid at the rate of ten thousand dollars per mile when fifty miles were built. If any road needed aid surely this one was the road. However, this failure largely advertised this section of our state and the importance and necessity of a railroad. And very soon a strong company was organized to build the road.

At an election members of the legislature in 1898 Col. W. P. Price was chosen to represent Lumpkin county. During his term he succeeded in amending the Air-Line railroad bill and required that it should run from Atlanta by the way of Gainesville, to the South Carolina line, in an air-line direction and granting state aid thereto, and the bill was approved by the then Gov. Bullock. The company went to work and had the road completed in a very few years to the South Carolina line, giving entire satisfaction to all who were interested in this great work.

The bonds of the Air-Line railroad thus endorsed by the state were used only for building the railroad to the town of Norcross. After this the company was enabled to sell the bonds without state endorsement, and the endorsement was removed at the instance of the railroad company.

No one can realize how greatly this section has been benefitted by the building of the Air-Line railroad except those living in the section through which it passes.

Our school yard is much nicer than it was before we met and set out our flowers.

We had a box supper at our school for the purpose of getting a large bell. Every thing passed off nicely. And now we have our bell, but haven't got it erected yet, but will have soon.

NOTE.

I verily believe that Lumpkin county will soon be a flower garden—owing to the exertions of our sweet country school girls. When will our city fathers put a wire fence around our graded school in Dahlonega? The teachers and pupils have long desired to give their leisure hours to the delightful task of cultivating flowers, etc. If subscriptions cannot be had for the purpose, let the city council borrow $50 for the purpose—$100 would not be too much.

Did you ever think why a negro never commits suicide? When a negro sits down to brood over a thing, he straightway goes to sleep and forgets his troubles. This is the reason the negro never kills himself, says the Marietta Journal.

The strike evidence is all in. It comprises 2,300,000 words. If it were set up in type this size and stretched out in a single line, it would cover a distance of about twelve miles. When the commissioners read over this testimony they will be well traveled.

Where the Other Half Was.

A young minister in the course of an eloquent sermon on the pomps and vanities of the world staggered his congregation by exclaiming:

"Have am I standing here preaching to you with only half a shirt on my back, while you sit there covered with gewgaws and other baubles."

The next day a parcel containing several brand new shirts was left at his house by one of his hearers, a kind hearted old lady. Meeting the donor a few days afterward, he thanked her exceedingly, but expressed much surprise at receiving such an unexpected gift.

"Oh," said the lady, "you mentioned in your sermon on Sunday that you had only half a shirt on your back."

"Quite true," added his reverence, "but you seem to forget the other half was in front."—London Tit-Bits.

Consumption

Salt pork is a famous old-fashioned remedy for consumption. "Eat plenty of pork," was the advice to the consumptive 50 and 100 years ago.

Salt pork is good if a man can stomach it. The idea behind it is that fat is the food the consumptive needs most.

Scott's Emulsion is the modern method of feeding fat to the consumptive. Pork is too rough for sensitive stomachs. Scott's Emulsion is the most refined of fats, especially prepared for easy digestion.

Feeding him fat in this way, which is often the only way, is half the battle, but Scott's Emulsion does more than that. There is something about the combination of cod liver oil and hypophosphites in Scott's Emulsion that puts new life into the weak parts and has a special action on the diseased lungs.

A sample will be sent free upon request. Do note that this picture in the form of a label on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

The dividend was of $20 per share, an increase of $10 per share over the dividend of last November. The coal famine gave the Standard Oil an opportunity to increase the price of kerosene and gasoline to consumers, thus adding a few millions to the incomes of the needy magnates, remarks the Savannah News.

Of the Greater Georgia movement inaugurated in Atlanta this week, the Birmingham Age-Herald has the following to say: "Georgia wants more mills, and she proposes to get them through organization and publicity. Other states in the cotton states have like wants, and the only way those wants can be satisfied is by the plan adopted in Georgia—organization and publicity. The state that does not do campaign work and does not advertise will get few or no immigrants, and Georgia does not propose to remain listless in this emergency. No given set of resources will advertise themselves, and the Georgia plan is the only feasible one."

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published. No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformed, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "cure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how my mother was cured. I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are wearied and discouraged with "doctoring" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism is a curse. My address is VICTOR RAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Ind.

Local News.

Eggs are still out of reach of the printer—15 cents per dozen.

Mr. Charlie Honsley returned home on a visit from Alabama last week.

When in need of clothing go to the bargain store.

ANDERSON & JONES.

Mr. F. L. Reese went down to Atlanta last week to purchase a stock of goods so as to begin business in Dahlonega again.

The Lumpkin county ex-confederate pensioners are being made happy this week by the state treasurer sending out their checks.

The young men who went from this place to attend the Young Mens Christian Association at Columbus last week, have returned, highly pleased with their trip.

If you want to post your land we have the blank cards already printed for you at 5 cents a dozen. You have nothing to do except insert the numbers and write your name.

Mr. B. Roper of Atlanta, in renewing his subscription to the NUGGET adds: "I do not want to miss getting the NUGGET as I can depend on what you say about the mines."

The freight wagons were five days last week in making the trip to Gainesville, a distance of only 25 miles, on account of the severe weather, high waters and bad roads.

The plastering and out side wall of the store house of W. P. Price is freezing and falling off, which will necessitate the taking out and putting in harder brick in cement as soon as he can procure the brick.

Our old friend Mr. Taylor Wimpy, who left here for Texas many years ago, writes us this week from Highway. He wants the NUGGET sent to him so he can keep posted on affairs about his native home.

Billie Carroll is 62 years of age and never swore an oath in his life. He was in the civil war four years and during the entire time never missed a single roll call nor refused to go where he was ordered, causing us all to feel proud of this good old gentleman.

Perry Anderson, a negro of this place who is no second Solomon, has already called on ordinary Huff to see about his Hanna pension. The judge told him that it had not become a law yet and he had nothing to do with it no way. Perry went away very much disappointed.

Last year Judge Huff paid the Justices of the Peace of this county about $60 to furnish the tax receiver a list of all the tax payers in the county, and strange to say not a single defaulter name appear on the tax digest and a number of men in the county whose names do not appear on it any where. This causes people to wonder why it is thus.

It will be seen from an article on first page that Col. Price is wondering why some steps are not taken to build a wire fence around the graded school house in Dahlonega. The Colonel says that he will give $5.00 towards it if a subscription is started for the purpose. We don't believe it will be any trouble to raise the money and with a good fence the place would look so much nicer.

The prosperity of the NUGGET seems to be hurting little Billie Signal, but nothing he says can effect it, for when he can't build up the paper he is trying to run, most certainly he can't harm ours, because he has no influence. We would suggest to him to start up a soap factory in connection with the Signal and get old Liz Dick to help him. She can run the "Apple Jack" department more successfully and he could chew gobs for the factory. By this combine they might make enough to lift the mortgage that is against the Signal, due in May next.

Mrs. B. P. Gaillard is on a visit to Gainesville this week.

Jno. Abercrombie, who went to Kansas from this county about 20 years ago, was in Dahlonega yesterday.

W. P. Price, Jr., has already received a lot of spring goods who invites you to call and examine goods and get prices.

One of our friends at New Brighton, Pa., in order to avoid the rush has sent us a remittance for the NUGGET up to Sept. 24, 1904.

Mr. James B. Witt writes us that he will be over to Dahlonega in April. There is no one the people would rather see here than Jim Witt.

Miss Dessie Wehnt, a daughter of Mr. Eli Wehnt of this county, died last Sunday night, after an illness of some twelve or eighteen months.

Mr. W. I. Rosh of Kansas City a member of the Briar Patch Mining Co., and S. A. Duncan were registered at Hall's Villa Tuesday afternoon.

A new post office in this county called Tube, has been established with Mr. C. M. Head as its postmaster, to be supplied from Dahlonega. No regular schedule yet.

"Bunt" Tolbert, the Gainesville and Dahlonega mail carrier, has procured him a nice uniform and cap, and looks like one of Uncle Sams men ready to start to Manila.

Look out! There is counterfeit money being circulated in Lumpkin county. A gentleman of Nimbleshield district had two dollars passed on him recently. The matter is being investigated and you will likely here more about it later on.

Clayton Freeman of White county, was brought in by Marshal Grizzle last Monday and bound over by Com. Baker to the U. S. court in Atlanta. He was at a still house near his premises last July. His wife blew a horn and he got away then, but is now in the clutches of the law.

While Alvena Coffee was up before Mayor Baker charged with wife whipping, a lot of witnesses were put on the stand to testify against the negro to learn if he had been selling liquor. He has the reputation of dealing in blockades but none of the witnesses didn't seem to know anything about it.

A surprised wedding took place in Dahlonega last Sunday, Feb. 22. The gentleman was Mr. John D. Price of Dawson county, and Miss George Ann Abbott of Dahlonega. This ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Blackburn. About 5 p. m. a nice supper was set, at which all of Miss Abbott's friends that were present enjoyed eating the chicken and pound cake.

Mr. Thomas Ray of this place, leaves for Tennessee next Monday or Tuesday where he goes to superintend the cutting of a long tunnel 10 miles west of Knoxville. He will carry as many as 40 hands if he can get them. Persons of tunnel experience wishing to go are requested to meet him here at Dahlonega next Sunday. Common labor $1.50 per day. Machine men $2.00.

On last Monday City Marshal Harbison was notified by parties in Atlanta that Geo. Underwood, col., who used to work for a transfer company, had been arrested and was then in jail charged with stealing clothing and many other articles of value, and in his pocket was found a letter from Henry Underwood a barber of Dahlonega, in reference to clothing, saying that he could not dispose of any now. Mr. Harbison, being aware that Henry had been selling clothing and other things some time back, procured a search warrant and made an investigation but found only one new small boy's over coat with no mark on it so it could be identified that he could see. The company was notified of the discovery at once. Several other negroes were arrested for this same offense some time back.

Mr. Daniel Howell of Auraria, has been quite sick this week.

Several of our citizens are beautifying their premises by setting out shade trees.

It is Mr. John Ricketts who has contracted to carry the Gaddistown mail, and not his brother.

The first straw hats of the season were drawn by some of the young men last Monday.

MULE FOR SALE.—$45 cash, $50 Nov. 1st, good note.

Mrs. Recks leaves this week for her home in the north, to be accompanied by Miss Mirthie Thomas.

Our job presses have been on the move since January, making it interesting to the public as well as to ourselves.

For the past few weeks the Gainesville mail has been very irregular owing to the inclement weather and bad roads.

Mrs. F. M. Meaders has gone down to Bellville, Ga., to join her husband who has been there trading stock for some weeks.

Charlie Rice and Will Ward were each fined $2 and cost by Mayor Baker last Monday, having filed a plea for disorderly conduct.

Mrs. Hutchins, who recently rented the Burnside Hotel, has been quite sick again and unable to move and it is not known when she will.

Mr. F. G. Jones, after an absence of about a couple of months down the country selling stock, returned last Monday. Mr. Thomas Tate his partner, will be on later.

The city authorities have had the walk near the college and dormitory graveled and put in good fix, and will continue the work at other places. It is a good idea to do the work well and then it will be permanent.

Uncle Bill Postell and young Jess Satterfield are mining over on the Yahoola near the Findley, with much success he says. He thinks if it holds out as good as it is now they will make a thousand dollars by July.

Groceries and kerosene oil have been so scarce for the past two weeks that the Dahlonega and Gainesville wagon train had to continue moving on Sunday to keep the supply here from being entirely exhausted.

Mr. J. S. Freeman, of Olney, Ill., in renewing his subscription to the NUGGET this week, pays us the following compliment by saying that he "can't do well without it." Thank you, sir, we will use our utmost endeavors to keep it so you will always like to read it.

Prof. Ansted, who has been a resident of Dahlonega and a teacher in the college here for five years, is making arrangements to sell out and return to his old home in Canada after July. The Professor is one of the nicest men we ever met and we regret very much to see him leave Dahlonega.

Mr. Frank L. Haralson, former state librarian, who spent his college days in Dahlonega, after several years of idleness and dissipation in Atlanta, has been converted, joined the church and baptized. His many friends in this section who had given him up as lost will be glad to learn that he has made up his mind to be a better man and live a more useful life, and more especially his old schoolmates here.

Mr. R. C. Thomson of Columbus, Ohio, in writing to a gentleman in Dahlonega, speaks in the highest terms of the place and its citizens, as follows: "I often think of Dahlonega and her good people and wish I were again a resident of the place. I certainly shall, if the opportunity presents itself, again become a resident of Dahlonega, for according to the opinion of myself and good wife 'it is the best place on earth.'"

Mrs. W. J. Worley, after an absence of six weeks in Gainesville has returned.

A new lot of clothing just arrived. Mens, boys, and youths at Anderson & Jones' store.

Judge Huff returned yesterday from Atlanta with the money for pensioners of this county.

Solicitor General Charters and Stenographer Swain left last Saturday for Rabun Superior Court.

Last Sunday was a beautiful day, so pleasant and nice that a few couples went out in search of wild flowers.

Mr. Joseph M. Gurley, formerly a citizen of Dahlonega, but now of Greenville, Texas, has recently been appointed postmaster of that city, at a salary of $2,400 a year.

Mr. Geo. Walker, Jr., has purchased him a house and lot on the Mahew road beyond Col. Charters, takes the NUGGET and is now living a quiet and happy life.

Mr. Geo. B. White at Gainesville, writes us that he fails to get his NUGGET regularly. We can't see why for it is plainly addressed with a mailer and sent out every week.

D. Lance of this county, stepped in a gully the other side of New Bridge last week and sprained one of his ankles so badly that he was unable to walk a step for several days.

Lum Hamilton, residing a few miles of Dahlonega, died of consumption last Friday. It can be truthfully said that Lumpkin has lost one of her best colored citizens.

Sheriff Davis went down to Atlanta last Sunday over by Dick McDonald who has served his term out in Uncle Sams prison for breaking into Wier postoffice and now has to go through the machinery of the state law.

All the business houses in Dahlonega will soon be occupied again. We understand that Mr. Gurley of Union county, will open out a market in the former John Moore stand, and Mr. Frank Reese will throw open the doors of the old Copeland stand.

Mr. W. C. Moore of Dahlonega, who is located at the Dunlap Shoals in Hall county, in charge of the commissary during the building of the dam, was up last Sunday to visit his family, and reported that they were progressing with the work as fast as possible, a good deal of time having been lost on account of the cold, rainy weather.

On last Saturday night Alvena Coffee's wife came after the marshal, stating that her husband was at home drinking and cutting up. The officer, in company with the night watchman, Walker, went over and carried him to jail. Early next morning his wife was in town trying to get him out, saying that he didn't do much, but he was not molested from his safe quarters until Monday, when he was brought out for trial, found guilty and fined $10 by Mayor Baker, all amounting to $15.75. His wife pulled out her pocket book, paid the fine and both went home apparently as happy as they were the day of their wedding.

In last weeks NUGGET we published what an editor down the country had to say about poison snakes occasionally being found in cabbage heads, and hoped that there were no such things this high up in the mountains, but it seems that they are here. No longer than last week Mrs. Boyd Gurley of Dahlonega, found one in a hard headed cabbage she was cutting up to cook for dinner, but didn't know what it was at the time. It was several inches long and a little larger than a hair, but as lively as a cricket. Plourding out on the floor it was some time before the lady succeeded in killing it. The discovery caused Mrs. Gurley to give this cabbage and all the rest just purchased to the cow and has not eaten any since. So we too are done eating cabbage, for we were always afraid of snakes.

Mining Notes.

Mr. Trogent of the Barlow, informs us that this mine is improving.

At the pyrites mine we understand that a drift was started last week and everything is moving along like clock work over that way.

It is rumored that Mr. Maxwell will be the next superintendent at the Consolidated Mine as soon as Mr. Rex's time expires.

Messrs. Jos. Sparks, Bev. Brooks and Lafayette Carder of Dahlonega got the contract of cutting the 500 foot tunnel for the Cavender's Creek Co., and are pushing the work forward with a vim.

No work has been done at Turkey Hill since Christmas up to this week on account of some repairs being made on the pump. They had everything ready last week to commence but the froshet caused a delay until Monday.

On last Friday Mr. H. R. Loggins was in town with some of the nicest and largest pieces of mica we have seen. He got it up near the mountains for Mr. Ashley who is interested and who we understand will work it on an extensive scale.

Mr. W. G. Campbell is now superintendent at the Singleton mine, belonging to the Standard Co. This was a wise appointment and the right man in the right place, and one who will work to the company's interest by operating the mine in an economical manner.

Our old friend Mr. Boney Tank is moving right along with his work on the Briar Patch canal. Boney understands the lick it is done with and never fails to please those employing him. They have already crossed the Neisler Ford road with the canal, making their way towards the head of it.

Work has closed down at the Batz mine until the 15th of March, on account of the absence of Mr. Arnold who was called home to see his father who was seriously sick. And the gentleman writes that he will not be able to return before that time.

Just as the blizzard let up last Thursday and Crown Mountain pump was started three of the cogs in one of the wheels broke, causing the plant to shut down until it was repaired, which was made good and was started to work this week. While the plant was idle they put in a log washer which it is believed will be beneficial.

Down at the Benning the incline has reached a depth of about two hundred feet. From the surface to the present depth nothing but ore has been struck and how much farther this vast body of ore extends is not known. They have cut each way a distance of 30 feet and failed to get through it. Now a perpendicular shaft is being cut to see how far the ore extends down if possible.

Messrs. Breymann and Ainslie, large stockholders and officials of the Standard and Consolidated Mining Co's, have returned to the north. In a short while it will be known whether the new smelters, heretofore spoken of, will be installed on these properties. Mr. Maxwell, who is out in Mexico where one is in operation now, carried some ore from here so as to give it a thorough test. It is reported to be the best gold saver on record, but these gentlemen are doing right by acting cautiously.

Messrs. Hutch Wimpy and Henry Duckett, two farmers residing up in Cane Creek district, have discovered a rich gold vein on the former property, but is close to the line of the latter causing him to feel very much interested. It is about eighteen inches thick and very valuable, showing gold in the rock. They have gone down on it some twenty or thirty feet. This discovery is somewhat of a surprise to us as we had no idea that there was any gold of any consequence in that section. It is in this same section where kaoline has also been discovered, causing the people to take more interest in the mineral resources of Cane Creek district than heretofore.

We understand that Capt. H. D. Ingersoll has been selected as the general superintendent of both the Standard and Consolidated Mining Co's. No better selection could have been made. The Captain has been in the mining business a long time. He is acquainted with all the people and knows how to get the best results by employing the best native miners.

Auraria Dots.

How shall I time my
Eyes to sing thy praise
O Land of Gold!
What unseen farce
My pen inspire,
From 'neath thy sunny skies
'Tis not of thy glory told,
Nor faded phantoms of thy past
That I would sing;
But to tell the tale
Of thy living, moving hosts,
My harp's string.

Spring birds that passed their winter under a tropical zone are making themselves known by their sweet songs in the early morning sunshine.

Most of our people have been taking advantage of the pratty weather we have been having, and every morning at the approach of day generally finds them ready to grasp their task with a "coon song" that echoes from the heart. Joe Dan Miller is at home a few days this week. Joe Dan says the drilling at Dahlonega agrees with him but the officer in charge is not so wholesome.

Mr. Daniel Hydeu is very low at present. As we previously mentioned, he is very old and that seems to be the trouble.

Col. Baker was down with us the first of the week. Come again, Colonel, we appreciate good company.

Dr. Whelchel of Dahlonega, was called to see Mr. Howell at this place last Sunday. Mr. Howell was suffering with a severe attack of the lagrippe. We hope he will soon be out again.

While we do not publish an honor roll for a show, those below are the ones who have actually done the work this month that entitles them to the first place: Carrie Free, Lizzie Hutcheson, Greenop Bruce, Annie Smoller, Howell and Walter Miller, Missouri Poston and Edith Bell. Those who have neglected some of the work required but who deserve to the second place are: Milda Summerour, Frank and Garland Christian, Carl Free, Lon Hutcheson, Eddie Miller, John Trammel and Azza Norrel. The work for the winter term has been above the average, considering the bad weather. The school will close this week until the first of June, at which time we will begin a four month's session, and we shall spare no efforts to have better and more systematic work done than ever before.

Several gentlemen, who came down to visit the Briar Patch mine this week were out yesterday looking at the Crown Mountain plant, and departed singing good old familiar hymns, reminding us of camp meeting times, leaving "Apple Jack" looking like the lone pilgrim.

A Trying Moment.

She was a nice little cousin from the country, and she had come to a city luncheon given by some well friends, says a New York paper. She was having a beautiful time and chatting away merrily when the salad course came on, and the butler passed a cream cheese. It was on a dolly placed on a flat plate, and a silver knife lay by it.

The country cousin was busy talking, and without an instant's hesitation she took the plate, cheese and all, and set it down by her own salad plate. The butler gave a decorously repressed start of horror, the other guests began to talk very fast and the little cousin, suddenly appreciating what she had done, turned scarlet and sat and gazed at that cheese in dumb agony and wished she could die then and there.

But the hostess, who sat by her, said, gently putting the action to the word:

"Do let me cut you a piece of the cheese."

And then the plate was passed on, and everybody began to breathe once more. But the cousin didn't speak again for ten minutes.

The Difference.

He was a man who was making $50 a week and was having luncheon with his fiancé in an up-town restaurant. The lady ordered chicken salad, followed by black coffee and wafers. The man, who could have afforded everything on the bill and not felt a hole in his pocketbook, had consumed and Little Neck clams and drank water. The waiter got 10 cents.

A clerk who was kept busy earning his salary of $18 took his sweetheart to an expensive seaside resort. It took twenty minutes to decide what they wanted to eat. Finally the order came, heaped high up on a large tray.

At the lady's place the waiter deposited roast beef, mashed potatoes, chicken croquettes, with peas, a salad of lettuce and potatoes and a cup of coffee.

The man, wondering how he could get a winter overcoat, ate a porter house steak, with mushrooms, fried potatoes, green corn and coffee.

For dessert they had ice cream and fancy cakes, with more coffee. The waiter got a quarter. —New York Herald.

A Deserved Fate.

Some poet wrote the following: "Long is that morn that brings no eye; tall is the corn that no cobs leave; blue is the sky that never looks yellow; hard is the apple that never grows mellow; but longer and bluer and harder and tall is my own ladylove—my adorable Poll." P. S.—The author has since died in great agony. —London Tit-Bits.

A one armed Irishman was in Lawrenceville last week and he told a chicken tale that beats Mr. Minor's story about his hens laying eggs at night. This man of the roads makes a wire hen's nest which conceals the egg as soon as it is deposited, and a hen never eekles until she sees her fruit. He said this patent nest often caused a hen to lay five or six eggs a day, but that he was driven out of an Illinois town for selling this arrangement. In this vill a stingy old cuss fed saw dust to his fowls along with the bran and there was nothing said as long as the eggs were used for table purposes, but when a sousing hen came off and the little chickens had wooden heads, that was more than people could stand and the blame was laid on the Irishman for thus overworking the hens with his wire nests, so the son from the Emerald Isle was made to leave town at once. —Lawrenceville News-Herald.

It is a great deal easier to teach an old dog new tricks than it is to make him forget his old ones.

Fresh Air or Fuel.

One reason for the rugged health and long life of the people who live in the country, and especially in the mountain districts, unquestionably is the supply of pure and fresh air which they get all the winter through the comparatively loose construction of their houses and the open fires or stoves, which maintain a constant rush of fresh oxygen from the outside. The drafts and chills of which we complain so bitterly in the Southern houses, and especially those in the country, represent months and years of life and health for us. If the coal famine has taught people at the North the value of fresh air and the possibility of sleeping and living in something like natural temperature, it will result in the diminution of consumption statistics, besides cutting down the coal bills and increasing the opportunities for family savings. —Richmond News.

Hon. Gordon Russell has introduced a bill in congress providing that hereafter no pension under any law of the United States shall be granted to any person not a citizen of the United States and those now living in foreign countries and drawing pensions from the United State shall be dropped. The last report of the commissioner of pensions shows that there are now on the pension rolls 4,000 foreigners who draw from Uncle Sam's treasury $240, 329.49 annually. These foreigners came over here at the outbreak of the war, hired their services to the northern army, and are now subjects of some prince, king, monarch or potentate in Europe.

Didn't Move on Time.

A typical tough boy, aged thirteen, was committed to a certain asylum not long ago by a city magistrate.

"What did you do that they sent you here?" asked the superintendent mildly.

"Hi!" They sent me up just for playing a game?" snarled the boy.

"What game?" asked the superintendent.

"Checkers wid de police," he explained. "It was no move, no! I didn't move, so dey jumped me."

He had been arrested for loitering. —New York Tribune.

A Model Locality.

The excitable passenger in the battered silk hat was loudly inveighing against things in general and the places he happened to have visited in particular, says the New York Times.

All at once a quite and sedate old gentleman, who had up till then sat silently in one corner, remarked:

"How would you like to live in a place where no one drinks any intoxicating liquor, or ever smokes a cigar?"

"It would be excellent," replied the grumbler.

"And where every one goes to church on Sunday."

"That would be a delightful place."

"And where no one steals, or forges, or cheats?"

"But such a place is impossible. Tell me where there is such a perfect place."

"You will find it in Sing Sing prison," was the quiet reply; and the grumbler was silent for the remainder of the journey.

A Quiet Place.

A nervous looking man went into a store the other day and sat down for half an hour or so, when a clerk asked if there was anything she could do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. She went away and he sat half an hour longer, when the proprietress went to him asked if he wanted to be shown anything. "No," said the nervous man. "I just want to sit around. My physician has recommended perfect quiet for me, and says above all things I should avoid being in a crowd. Noticing that you did not advertise in the newspapers, I thought that this would be as quiet a place as I could find, so I just dropped in for a few hours of isolation."

The merchant picked up a bolt of paper cambric to brain him, but the man went out. He said all he wanted was a quiet life.

Badly

Shattered Nerves and Weak Heart.

Too Nervous to Sleep or Rest.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve Cured Me.

A shattered nervous system, nearly always leads to some affection of the heart, especially when the patient's heart is weak from hereditary or other causes. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is not only a great heart regulator, but it is a blood tonic, which steadily corrects and regulates the heart's action, enriches the blood and improves the circulation. It will build you up just as it did Mr. Crawford whose latter affliction, and greatly improve your general health.

"I have been so greatly benefited by Dr. Miles' Nervous Heart Cure that I freely recommend them as the best remedies for the diseases they are recommended to cure. When I began taking these medicines I weighed scarcely 120 pounds, my nerves were badly shattered and my heart troubled me a great deal. I had pain in my left arm and shoulder, had difficulty in sleeping on my left side, had frequent swooning spells and my heart would flutter and palpitate. I could eat scarcely any kind of food without suffering great distress, and was so restless and nervous that I slept little night or day. Now I am never bothered with my heart, my nerves are steady as a die, I sleep well, eat well and weigh 165 pounds. I am happy now and am trying to make back the money I spent for doctors who did me no good while I was ill." —L. R. CRAWFORD, Cedar, Texas.

Consumption Cured

Foley & Co., Chicago. Dana, Ind., Sept. 28, 1902. Gentlemen:—FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR cured me of consumption after I had suffered two years and was almost desperate. Three physicians failed to give me any relief and the last one said he could do me no good. I tried almost every medicine I heard tell of without benefit until FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR was recommended to me. Its effect right from the start was magical. I improved steadily from the first dose and am now sound and well, and think FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is a God-send to people with Throat and Lung Trouble. Yours very truly, Mrs. Mary Ambrose.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR contains no opiates and does not constipate like ordinary cough medicines.
